WASHINGTON (WNS) --In his third annual foreign policy report to Congress, Pres. Nixon accused the Soviet Union of responsibility for the current unrest in the Middle East and called upon the USSR to help avoid a "major conflict in the Middle East" by limiting its arms supply to its allies in the area, and to aid in achieving peaceful settlement in the Arab-Israel conflict. In his 5,000 word, 236-page report titled, "United States Foreign Policy for the 1970s--The Emerging Structure of Peace," the President revealed that through 1970, the Soviets had deployed in Egypt "eight surface-to-air missile installations, several squadrons or combat aircraft with

Purim

Purim, the gayest and most festive of all the Jewish holidays, will begin for all Jews at sundown, Monday, February 28.

Though the festival of Purim is actually derived from a biblical legend, the story of the Jewish Queen Esther who saved her people from annihilation by the Persian tyrant Haman, it has acquired a deeper significance for the Jewish people over the many centuries of its observance. The pattern of Jewish history has repeatedly been marked by the appearance of figures such as Haman -- whose anti-Semitic obsession and plan physically to destroy the Jewish community of Persia has tragically, unbelievably, found modern expression. Therefore, Jews on this day reaffirm their commitment to religious freedom for all people.

According to the Book of Esther, which is read in the synagogue to mark this holiday, Esther captured the heart of the Persian King Ahasuerus by her extraordinary beauty and graciousness. Learning from her Uncle

SID HUDSON, MAN OF CLASS

SID

By JACK TELL

There is a great deal of satisfaction in calling attention to unheralded "good deeds" performed when and where they become necessary.

The man with the wide open heart, and a quick checkbook to match, is Sid Hudson, who's been dry-cleaning our clothes in Las Vegas for 26 years.

The most outstanding attribute of Sid, which deserves the highest praise, are his benefactions without fanfare of publicity. He just gives without seeking or desiring attendant notoriety. But we believe otherwise.

Not too long ago Sid paid for hundreds of pairs of shoes for the boys of St. Jude's Home. When we asked, "How come?" He answered, "I found out those kids needed shoes, so what?"

Recently, Sid heard about the untimely death of Flamingo bell captain Lou Trousdale, a long-time pal. Sid started asking questions and not too soon thereafter, arrangements were made for Lou's son Greg to attend Oregon State University on a full four year scholarship. Whattaman, Sid!

MIDEAST PEACE THRU NIXON'S VISIT TO MOSCOW IN MAY

JERUSALEM (WNS) --Political circles here expect peace in the Middle East at least until After Pres. Nixon visits Moscow in May. Noting that the joint Soviet-Egyptian communique issued after the completion of Egyptian President Anwar Sadat's visit to Moscow called for a political solution to the Middle East crisis. They said Sadat had evidently failed to secure Soviet arms and backing for renewed warfare, at least at this time. They also noted the Soviet pledged support for Egypt but not for Sadat personally as they used to with the late Pres. Nasser. Some sources here believe the USSR is unhappy with Sadat and would like to see another, more pro-Soviet regime replace his.

Though the joint communique emphasized the need for a renewal of the Gunnar V. Jarring talks, circles here believed both Egypt and the Soviet Union were not "unalterably opposed" to an interim agreement reached through "close proximity" talks between Egypt and Israel.

UN SEC'Y. DOOMS AMERICAN PLAN

ROME (WNS)--United Nations Secretary General Kurt Waldheim said the American initiative for an interim agreement in the Middle East was doomed to failure and the "only possibility" for a peaceful solution to the Middle East crisis lay in the mediation efforts of Dr. Gunnar V. Jarring.

Waldheim made his remarks at a news conference after meeting separately with Pope Paul VI and with Jarring who had just returned from talks with African leaders who had visited the Middle East on behalf of the Organization of African Unity in an attempt to find some means of renewing the stalled Middle East talks.

The Secretary General said the American effort would fail because one party (Israel) prefers the American effort while the other party (Egypt) prefers UN mediation.

"We shall insist on having United Nations mediation through the UN mediator, Dr. Jarring, and on reinforcing this mediation which is the only possibility for a peaceful solution," he said.
