and resources to defense, they can no longer help to pay for those humanitarian programs that are the traditional responsibility of free-world Jewry. Full responsibility for the complete range of UJA-supported programs in Israel now rests in our hands. And this task calls for a campaign unlike any we have known."

Mr. Exber said that if it were not for the United Jewish Appeal's emergency fund, many of the programs vital to the future growth and development of the people of Israel would simply cease to exist. "Only through the success of our campaign... and others across the nation... can the continuance of these important programs be assured. There are countless immigrants to train and resettle... aged and handicapped to care for... children to educate. And especially now, with the miracle of the exodus of Soviet Jewry, these programs must not be abandoned."

The chairmanship of the Las Vegas Combined Jewish Appeal is another in an impressive list of philanthropic and civic duties for Mr. Exber. He has also served on the Board of Directors of the Greater Las Vegas Chamber of Commerce, as the Chairman of the 1971 CJA campaign and is presently President of Temple Beth Shalom

COMBINED JEWISH APPEAL TO PARTICIPATE IN UNITED JEWISH APPEAL EMERGENCY FUND DRIVE

The Las Vegas Combined Jewish Appeal will participate in the United Jewish Appeal's sixth nationwide Emergency Fund drive to meet humanitarian needs in Israel. Attorney David Goldwater, President of the Las Vegas Combined Jewish Appeal, said a chairman, officers and committee members will soon be named to lead the local drive.

"The tension in the Middle East has not lessened," Mr. Goldwater said. "The people of Israel are still faced with a growing threat to their survival. The vigilant security they must maintain has created a financial drain that is staggering. And because of this, they can no longer afford to help us pay for the humanitarian programs so vital to their future growth and development. There are new immigrants to resettle... aged and infirm to care for... children to educate... homes to build."

Mr. Goldwater noted that Israelis are already the most heavily taxed people in the world, and and on the Board of Trustees at St. Judes Ranch for Children.
