

TV 3'S "EVERY TUESDAY," A SOAP BOX FOR LAS VEGANS TO TALK

Southern Nevadans who want to talk about the things that bug them are finding their outlet on KORK-TV 3's "Every Tuesday" a community affairs program that lets them go before the TV audience and say whatever they wish, provided it's in reasonably good taste and doesn't violate federal communications rules.

The program is on TV 3 each Tuesday night from 9:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m., and each week, ordinary people talk to their neighbors with complaints, ideas, suggestions, about making life better. It may be a county employee who thinks there aren't enough cultural opportunities in Las Vegas, it may be a motel maid who thinks young Negro women are cleverly brushed off when they seek jobs in casinos. Both of these have been topics on "The View from across the Tube," ..the part of the program where the average citizen can talk.

TV 3 Community Affairs Director, John Howe, says "All they have to do is telephone or write to us, and they have a chance to be on TV. The program is a kind of soapbox for those who have no one to speak for them." "Every Tuesday" also contains interviews, discussions, and special reports by citizen groups, on any subject that affects life in Southern Nevada.

JERUSALEM (WNS)--After meeting with Acting Premier Yigal Allon and Foreign Minister Abba Eban, Dr. Gunnar V. Jarring, UN Mideast peace negotiator, met with UN Secretary General Kurt Waldheim in Geneva to report on the results of his talks with Israeli and Egyptian leaders.
