LOS ANGELES -- International Union of Councils for Soviet Jews is nearing the million mark in its campaign of sending holiday greeting cards to Soviet Jews.

NEW YORK--The religions of Judaism and Islam share a large body of religious ideals, social traditions and moral attitudes that, properly understood, should enable Jews and Muslims, as well as Christians, to "make a genuine contribution to the building of a unified human community which respects the diversity of religious, ethnic and racial groups as a source of positive enrichment," it was stated by Rabbi Marc H. Tanenbaum, National Inter-religious Affairs Director of the American Jewish Committee.

NEW YORK--On the first anniversary of the Brussels conference on Soviet Jewry, 13 leading Jewish activists in Moscow have sent a cabled message voicing gratitude to the Belgian people and appealing for help in seeking to emigrate to Israel, it was reported by the American Jewish Congress through Richard Cohen, associate executive director.

NEW YORK (WNS)--Hundreds of leaders in the field of Jewish education attended the funeral of Dr. Samuel M. Blumenfeld, 70, long-time director of the Department of Education and Culture of the American Section of the World Zionist Congress.

JERUSALEM (WNS)--Three more Zionist organizations called upon the Zionist Organization to reconsider its withdrawal from the American Zionist Federation.

BUCHAREST (WNS)--Chief Rabbi Moses Rosen of Rumania has appealed to the Jewish communities of the world to help alleviate the need for rabbis in this country, asking for volunteers to serve the Rumanian Jewish communities for a period of two or three years as a "Jewish public duty."
