

HADASSAH BLOOD BANK IN ISRAEL

NEW YORK (WNS) $1 million to establish --The National Board of a Department of clinical Pharmacology at Hadassah at its annual Hadassah-Hebrew University Medical announced it had voted Center in Ein Karem, Jerusalem.

The new department will centralize testing, teaching and research on humans.

At the School of Pharmacology researchers work with animals.

The National Board also voted to set up a blood bank to provide fractions (red or white cells) as well as whole blood.

When blood is fractionized one pint can often serve three or four patients.

ALL QUIET ON ISRAELI BORDERS

TEL AVIV (WNS)

--Roads in northern Israel were packed with visitors who came to view the scene of Israel's raids into

"Fatahland" which followed terrorist ambushes which killed five Israelis and wounded six others.

Ski runs on Mt. Hermon were crowded and Lebanese farmers were back working in their fields and waving to the Israeli tourists on the Israeli side of the border.

There was also quiet along the Syrian border.

Both Defense Minister Moshe Dayan and Chief of Staff David Elazar warned that any new country would bring outbreak of terrorist activity from either country would bring swift retaliation. Israelite Ads Pay

Why Do more passengers fly by charter jets to Europe from the west coast, than by scheduled airlines with all their "gimmick" airfares?

1. THE FLIGHTS ARE LEGAL!
2. Over 150,000 persons are involved and they all get home again as scheduled.
3. 75% like the low cost - without it many could not afford to go. BOTH wife and husband fly roundtrip for less than one of them would pay for a "gimmick" excursion fare.
4. The same airport flight kitchen serves you two hot, delicious meals across the Atlantic.
5. FREE DRINKS FOR ALL.
6. Las Vegas departures are proposed non-stop to Europe.
