A memorial plague will be lighted for Harry Wallerstein on Friday, April 7, the date of his Yahrzeit at Temple Beth Shalom. The ceremony will take place in the lobby at the conclusion of the regular services. Please attend.

Wells Cargo and General Concrete combined to donate $1,000 worth of engineering, materials and workmanship for a new opening to the student parking lot at Western High.

Nate Marsh is now publicity Chairman and membership director for City of Hope, so we'll be hearing plenty of news about that fine organization's activities.

There are co-op markets, co-op apartment houses and now we have a co-op for pets, Pet Lovers, Inc. All facilities such as grooming, boarding, bathing, etc. are at cost to our members. All grooming done by professionals. Our decor makes the pet feel at home in an atmosphere of gracious living. The club boats a swimming pool area, patio and keno lounge. The motto is TENDER, LOVING, CARE. Visit Pet Lovers and see another wonder of the world. For information call Sylvia Notarius at 735-5400.

WASH. -- Nevada Sen. Howard Cannon called upon President Nixon to personally intervene to help end the crisis in Northern Ireland.

Mrs. James (Charlotte) Hill was re-elected to serve another year as president of the Volunteer Bureau.

WOOFER'S TRIP DOWN UNDER

Clark County District Attorney Roy Woofter hosted the week-long Midwinter Conference of district attorneys and their wives at the Hilton-International.

Woofter just returned from a two-week business and vacation trip to New Zealand and Australia with Assistant District Attorney, Charles Thompson. Officials visited included David Morris, Crown Prosecutor of Auckland, New Zealand, Lord Mayor Sir L. Emmet McDermott of Sidney, Australia; David G. Taylor, the Lord Mayor's Secretary; Carl McKay, Clerk of the Peace; Kenneth M. McCaw, Attorney General of New South Wales (McCaw's brother, Gordon, resides in Henderson), and H.A.R. Snelling, President of International Law Associates.

The many official tours included a felony trial in New Zealand; Auckland Law School; session of Australian Parliament; Sidney's Long Bay Prison and Darlinghurst Courts. Woofter and Thompson were made honorable members of Eastern Suburbs Leagues Club.
