Traditional Model Seder for children will be held Sun., Mar. 26 at Temple Beth Shalom social hall, starting at 10:30 A. M. Children from Hebrew School and Sunday School will participate in service conducted by Cantor Joseph Kohn. The Seder luncheon will be served by Sisterhood members.

You can still get those delicious Barton's Passover candies and macaroons from B'nai B'rith Girls Udelle Zivot at 870-2938 and Sandy Koch at 878-6529.

With Easter just around the corner, it is time for a new hairdo, medicure and pedicure. All this can be had in the Landmark Beauty Shop. There is no waiting and all the operators are top notch. Prices are reasonable, too for a Hotel Property. Give it a try and let me know.

Ben & Eva Zollotuchin very happy about the engagement of their son Arylen to Jean Goldberg. Marriage will take place sometime this summer. Mazel Tov.

Good news for a change in the Irv Corben household. They will become grandparents for the fourth time when son Dr. Michael Corben and his Mrs. have their #3 child. Irv just celebrated a birthday too. Knock wood he feels good and looks good. May his good health continue. (Daughter Susan has one child).

Congratulations to Joseph M. Kadans who was admitted to the Bar of the United States Court of Appeals. He is not practicing law in Las Vegas due to the fact that he was a graduate of a Law School in Baltimore that wasn't on the approved list of the American Bar. Assoc. Ho Hum--

Condolences to the family of Hy Indes who passed away so suddenly the other morning. He is survived by his widow, Ruth; son, Howard, and his wife, of Las Vegas; two grandchildren; and brothers Joe & Manny; a sister, Ann Lindermann; all who reside in Chicago where interment will take place.

Dear Miss Stadler: May I express my sincere thanks for the article you put in your column March 17, 1972, on Pet Lovers.

I hope to have the pleasure of meeting you in the very near future. Sincerely yours,
Sylvia Notarius

CHEF'S SPECIAL

A number of chefs from the Las Vegas Strip served as expert taste testers at a recent presentation of foods by Minor Corporation at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

The chefs, joined by faculty and students from the UNLV College of Hotel Administration, sampled a varied menu prepared by the company in the dining commons on campus.

Included in the panel of gourmets were John Todd, Chef of the Year, 1970; Chef Pierre Vireday, Bonanza Hotel; Chef Ruddph Thoma, Circus Circus; Chef Francis Crupelle, Landmark Hotel; Chef Maurice Cau, Las Vegas Escoffier Society; Richard Klein, food and beverage manager of the Showboat Hotel; and Chef Harry Bazon of Los Angeles.

Featured speaker for the occasion was Chef Ernest Koves of New York City. Koves, an associate editor of "Chef's Magazine," gave a lecture and demonstration on the Minor food bases to the gathering.

Minor Corporation was invited to make the presentation at UNLV by Dr. Lendal Kotschewski, a visiting professor of hotel administration at UNLV.

Alan Mald, 48, long-time hotel administrator in Europe and the United States, most recently at Trinidad Hotel, Palm Springs, has been named General Manager of Murrieta Hot Springs Resort, announced Irvin J. Kahn, president.

Students enrolled in the school at the Spring Mountain Youth Camp are getting a complete orientation to the car-

It's been four and one half years since Ruth Rabin left Las Vegas to take up residence in New York City. She came back for a visit and could hardly believe the growth in our city in so short a space of time. Yet the town keeps growing and growing getting smoggier, smoggier and more smog. Ugh. But, Ruth enjoyed every minute of the breathing the polluted air as she was managed to attend some of the organization meetings. Like she said, it is so good to renew old acquaintances and friends.
