

SIR ALEC DOES ABOUT FACE

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Sir Alec Douglas-Home, the British Foreign Secretary, said here he opposed any additions, subtractions or other interpretations of Security Council Resolution 242.

That stand was in total reversal of the position he took at a Harrogate speech soon after the Conservatives took power in Britain two years ago. At Harrogate, Sir Alec supported a return to the pre Six-Day war boundaries with only minor changes.

Speaking at a press conference the British diplomat said that the important issue was what the countries of the Middle East thought about steps toward a solution of the deadlock and that the Council resolution provided adequate flexibility. Any effort to change that resolution, he declared, would make another resolution impossible to obtain.

At an official dinner at the Knesset before

ROME--Pope Paul VI told B'nai B'rith delegation that he was gratified by increasing cooperative relationships that have developed between Catholics and Jews. The mutuality in understanding, he added, "must continue."

BOGOTA (WNS)--Johann Hartmann, 72, was being held by Colombian police pending the arrival of fingerprints from West Germany to determine if Hartmann was the long-sought Nazi war criminal Martin Bormann.

his return to London, he said the Mideast crisis could be resolved peacefully by a dialog between the Arabs and Israel. He reiterated his view that Israel's right to security was central to a Mideast solution.

He also argued that he was still convinced that Egypt's "desire" was "above all" to live at peace with Israel.
