

EXCLUSIVE PERSIAN RUGS WHOLESALE

BY JACK TELL

Many Las Vegans with exclusive taste are showing interest in the warehouse sale of Persian and Oriental rugs being offered by Alexander at Tehran Galleries at 1814 1/2 Industrial Road.

The story behind Oriental rugs is that their value increases with age, according to Alexander, who established an exclusive outlet in Las Vegas to introduce rugs manufactured in his own factory in Persia. Alexander states with authority, practically every one of his exquisite creations, which may be leased for income tax purposes, increase in value 50% or more after three years.

The art tapistries and throw rugs range from 2 x 4 feet to 14 x 20 feet, depicting a number of famous art scenes and patterns in a variety of colors. The size does not necessarily decrease in value, a total of 1,500,000 knots. One person completed 2000 knots per day. His salary was $1.00 per day. It is rimmed in silk fringe. For instance, the Isfahan Iran, shown in the photo, is three feet by five feet in size. It depicts a scene, "Process and Gardener's Son," and took three and a half years to create. It contains 750 knots per square inch, a total of 1,500,000 knots. One person completed 2000 knots per day. His salary was $1.00 per day. It is rimmed in silk fringe. The retail price for the Isfahan Iran is $5,900. It, and many others, are being offered to Vegans at wholesale prices.
