

GARDEN CITY, N.Y. (WNS) -- Two Reform Jewish leaders, Dr. Eugene Borowitz, Professor of Education and Jewish Religious Thought at the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion, and Rabbi Balfour Bricknew, director of Interfaith Activities of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, addressing a Long Island Christian-Jewish laymen's dialogue condemned what they described as the "isolationist and withdrawal" tendencies of the majority of Jews in this country from involvement in issues other than those of specific concern to Jews such as Israel and Soviet Jewry.

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Observers here predict a bitter contest for the post of Israel's Ashkenazic Chief Rabbi. Rabbi Shlomo Goren, Chief Rabbi of Tel Aviv, and former Army Chief Chaplains, announced he would seek the post. Chief Rabbi Issar Yehuda Unerman is expected to seek re-election.

LONDON (WNS) -- Jack Winnocour resigned as director of information of the World Jewish Congress in protest against the alleged usurpation of the Congress' independence by Israel's government.

LOS ANGELES (WNS) -- Five young Jews, who staged a demonstration inside the Shrine Auditorium last month at a performance of the Osipov Balalaika Orchestra of the Soviet Union, will go on trial May 3.

PARIS (WNS) -- An Israeli plane, forced off-course by bad weather and straying over a "restricted" area near Lyons was forced down by French fighter planes.
