SADAT THREATENS ALL JEWS

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Premier Golda Meir, addressing high school students of the Has-homer Hatzair movement at Givat Haviva settlement, said there can be no peace negotiations if Egyptian President Anwar Sadat refuses to "sit at the table with us and discuss his proposals and ours." She was referring to Sadat's threats, made at a religious ceremony marking the birthday of the Prophet Mohammed that he would "liberate all the occupied territories" this year and reduce the Jews to a "humiliated, hunted people." Israeli observers noted that his threats applied not only to Israel but to all Jews.

ORTHODOX RABBIS OPPOSE ABORTION

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Two Orthodox Jewish rabbinical groups have demanded that the state legislature repeal or drastically revise the present liberal abortion law. Rabbi Bernard L. Berzon, president of the Rabbinical Council of America claimed that "In New York City alone, over 200,000 unborn children have been aborted since the liberal abortion law was adopted in July of 1970." A spokesman for the Rabbinical Alliance of America called the law "a threat to our people and to the moral and social foundation of our Republic." Meanwhile, the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith revealed it is investigating allegations that a member of the "Right to Life" working for the law's repeal had injected anti-Semitism.
