are having a first time fling in the east. The group is currently in Indianapolis with Cleveland, Buffalo, Baltimore and Boston to follow. ELVIS returns to the Hilton for his "Summer Festival" opening August 4 through Labor Day.

COMING ATTRACTIONS...Broadway singing star of "Jacques Brel is Alive and Living in Paris" for two years, BITTY RHODES will make a Vegas bow in a special limited engagement to open the new FORBIDDEN CITY on Convention Center on June 2. At the same niter, Greek singer BILLY DARI (a big in-the-biz favorite from Los Angeles clubs and Honolulu cabarets) will also return to the Vegas scene after more than three years absence. Billy just returned from a tour in his native Greece where he played for six months at the jetset CLUB OGGI in Athens. FLORENCE HENDERSON in her Vegas debut at the Landmark. JOEY BISHOP is back at the Sands.

STRIP BITS & PIECES...Isn't the producer of the new revue opening shortly at the Hacienda Hotel also the brother of the producer of the Royal Las Vegas "Naked Sin"? Producer of the latter TERRY GORDON is reportedly on top of the list of Hollywood choreographer MARILYN CARROLL who's telling friends she conceived, created, and staged the Royal opus and was then abruptly released without residuals, royalties, etc. or even credit. MANOLO TORRENTE & FREDDY MANJON, producers-stars of the Thunderbird's "LATIN FIRE '73" returning on June 14 for a six month engagement, are home in Miami after an extensive talent hunt for Latin attractions for the new show. Cuban songbird FLOR DE LOTO may make her Strip bow in the new edition if Manolo and Freddy can persuade her to leave Miami where she is currently starring in a major hotel revue. Producers BARRY ASHTON & WOLF KOCHMANN due back soon from a long, long jaunt in England (Barry's native country) and the Continent scouting talent for their new revues (Miami, Puerto Rico, Boston, Copenhagen, etc.) in late '72 and '73. Ashton's new "Wonderful World of Burlesque" at the Silver Slipper is back to regular showtimes at 10:30 and 2:00 A.M. The late show is still one of the favorites with Strip stars and performers: JOHNNIE RAY, WAYNE COCHRAN, S.O.U.P., NORM CROSBY, PETE BARBUTTI, etc., among the early morn showgoers. THE KIM BROTHERS back at the Flamingo Casino Theater for another four week stint; just-closed WAYNE COCHRAN heads back to Epic Records in San Francisco to follow up his fast selling first album and cut a new single of one more Cochran composition to follow "It's Been a Long Long Day". RICK HARRIS, CANDY & MR. D, one of the last attractions at the now-closed Desert Inn Lady Luck Lounge
