D.I. DOUBLE TREAT

SRO crowds were on hand this week when singing star Bobby Darin was joined by comedian Jan Murray in engagement in the Crystal

Room of the Desert Inn. And, they have been packing the showroom ever since.

This marks Darin's third appearance at the plush hotel while Murray is making his DI debut. The two stars have created a highly entertaining show much to the delight of both visitors and locals.

TOTAL ENTERTAINMENT

Florence Henderson, actress, singer and comedienne, opened at the Landmark Hotel on Wednesday, May 17th, with special guest star, Allan Drake, comedian. Long noted for possessing one of the most lilting and dramatically effective voices in musical comedy, Florence

Florence Henderson

Henderson has recently become known to millions of viewers as a deft comedienne and warm actress on the top-rated ABC-TV comedy show "The Brady Bunch". On the nightclub stage, Florence conveys total entertainment, belting out songs with the intensity of a torch singer, dancing with the frenetic energy of a go-go girl, and clowning with a sharp, zany eye for both comedic and character details.

The youngest of ten children, Florence was born in Dale, Indiana. Although she had no formal training in music in either grammar or high school, she loved to sing popular songs. The affluent parents of a school friend encouraged her by sponsoring her at the Academy of Dramatic Arts in New York.

After a year there, Florence left to take a role in the musical "Wish You Were Here", directed by Joshua Logan. During the run of the show, Richard Rogers and Oscar Hammerstein II signed her for the leading role in the last national company of "Oklahoma".
