

Only in Vegas By Helene Stadler

Ed and Sara Rubin will be bidding their many friends adieu. Their house has been sold and will make their new home in Los Angeles, in the very near future.

Wedding bells will ring for Maury Roseman and his many friends are happy to see him play the role of "Bridegroom." Good luck Maury and may you be happy all the time with your new bride.

If you love your wife and own your own home you can give her the present she will appreciate most - a "Built In" vacuum cleaning system. It can be installed in one day - and soooo reasonable. Call 384-7800 for details.

Harry and Sara Wein are looking forward to a visit from their grand daughter Donna and her husband Mead Greenberg, who are residents in Washington D.C. along with their other children & spouses Ruth and Ben Cutler, George and Barbara Wein, son David and his Girl friend Winifred. This will be a family gathering, at which time all the children and grand children will drink a toast to Harry and Sara who will be celebrating their 53rd wedding anniversary in June. They are such a happy and youthful looking couple, one cannot help but Shep Nachis when you see them. Mazel Tov and I would like to add my wishes too.

Larry and Mae Mushkin gifted their handsome son Mike with a snazzy car as a graduation present.

Ho Hum, back from my European vacation and will start saving for a trip next year. For a gal that was adamant about no wanting to go to Europe, I am so enthused. I can hardly wait to return. There is so much to see. For anyone planning a trip, my advise is save your money. Since the dollar has been devaluated, double what you plan on spending then go to it. Enjoyed the sights was amazed at the wealth in the churches and palaces and can understand why the poor destroyed the rich. They lived in such splendor, beyond one's wildest dreams. People treated you like a person, the food was delicious and unadulterated, (To be continued in a later column.)

Volunteer camp counselors, age 18 and up, willing to help for one week, June 10 to 16, will receive room, board, and spending money according to Margaret Purdue, executive director of the Volunteer Bureau of Clark County. Anyone interested in volunteer service for

YIDDISH CLUB Kindle the Shabbat Candles

BY FRANCES SILVEY
You missed a lively, animated evening if you were not at the Temple Beth Sholom, Monday evening.

Discussed was Times cover story (April 10) "What it Means to be Jewish."

Max Milgram, whose Yiddish is a delight to the ear, told of his reactions to the thwarting of the hi-jacking attempt of the Arab guerillas by the swift, courageous action of the Israelis. A touching account was read to us by Mrs. Harry Wein from a 1938 Jewish newspaper. Guitar music & songs followed.

Come join the fun & Yiddishkeit each Monday 8 p.m. No meeting Memorial Day - May 29. Dear Mr. Tell

Thank you for the space in your excellent paper. (ED. NOTE: The Yiddish Club is fast becoming the most popular curricular on the Jewish calendar, thank to Kay Wallerstein, J.T.)
