

LUBAVITCHER PUBLISHING HOUSE ISSUES NEW BOOK ON PRAYER

NEW YORK (LNS) -- The deeper content of the familiar Siddur (prayer book) is woefully unfamiliar to the average layman. For the individual eager to gain deeper understanding of our sacred prayers, AS FOR ME - MY PRAYER will open new vistas in how the Siddur is a source book of Jewish ethics and basic concepts of Judaism.

In arranging the structure of our daily prayers, the Sages were mindful to select Biblical and Talmudic passages which would evoke and articulate one's deepest religious feelings, to convey the sublime outpouring of the heart and inspire the cleaving of the soul to G-d. Concomitantly, they were mindful to include texts which express the basic truths and tenets of Judaism, from elementary moral and ethical values to the highest concept of Monotheism as proclaimed in the SHEMA.

In this volume, AS FOR ME - MY PRAYER provides a profoundly illuminating commentary on the morning, afternoon and evening prayers, on Grace After Meals and the Prayer Before Retiring to Bed, together with a comprehensive introduction. It explores the deeper, often mystical, content of the daily prayers.

AS FOR ME - MY PRAYER is sure to become a standard text on the Siddur. It can be obtained at Lubavitcher Publishing, 770 Eastern Parkway, Brooklyn, N.Y. 11213. (323 pages, $5.95).

HIJACKED PLANE FATALITY

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Mrs. Miriam Holtzberg, 22, who died of wounds suffered during the gun-battle between Israeli paratroopers and Arab terrorists which freed the hijacked Sabena jet airliner at Lydda Airport, was buried at Kibbutz Lohamei Hagetaot in Western Galilee where she was born.

The funeral was attended by representatives of El Al, Sabena Airlines, Lydda Airport and the Israeli Defense Forces. Mrs. Holtzberg was the only passenger fatality. Two terrorists died.
