DENONCE TERRORISM AT MEMORIAL

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Speaking at memorial services for victims of the Lydda Airport massacre held at the Fifth Avenue Synagogue, Israel's Ambassador to the U.S., Yitzhak Rabin, demanded "that the international community take every action necessary to safeguard the traveling community and rid the air routes once and for all of its international outlaws."

ARAB COUNTRIES TRYING TO WEAZEL OUT OF RESPONSIBILITY FOR LOD MASS MURDERS

UNITED NATIONS (WNS) -- In separate letters to Secretary General Kurt Waldheim and Security Council President Lazar Mojsov of Yugoslavia, Israel's Ambassador Yosef Tekoah denounced Libya's attempt to provide a "rationale" for the Lydda Airport massacre and denounced Lebanon for "allowing its territory to become a center of Arab terror organizations and a base for international terrorist operations."

The letter to Waldheim was in response to the Libyan Ambassador's circulation of a statement by the Palestine Liberation Organization that "no Arab state can be responsible" for the Tel Aviv shootings. Tekoah said the PLO was "the roof organ of Arab terror groups openly engaged in the campaign of murder directed against innocent and defenseless civilians" and noted that "only in the Arab World" was there jubilation over the killings and "attempts to whitewash the crime." He also said that "Libyan nationals have participated in the operation of the terror groups."

In an earlier letter to Mojsov, Tekoah charged that the Lebanese government is denying that "Lebanon's capital, Beirut, has become the seat of the terror organization's headquarters" was "wilfully distorting facts and ignoring the criminal activities in and out of Lebanon that have already resulted in the loss of numerous human lives." In addition to the Lydda attack, he stated terrorists trained in Lebanon were involved in the hijacking of a Sabena jet last month and of a Lufthansa jet in February.

TELL TALES

"One Man Plus The Truth

World's Fun City

Each year at the commencement of the vacation season, we bring our thousands of out-of-town ISRAELITE readers a comprehensive run-down of what they may expect if Las Vegas is on their summer agenda.

This is our twelfth year in Nevada, following a lifetime on Broadway, from knee-pants to Cavanaugh hat, and we never get over the amazement of how superior in every department is Las Vegas compared to anything that ever happened anywhere else in the world.

If you remember Al Jolson, Jimmy Durante, The Hotsy Totsy Club, The Astor Roof, Helen Morgan, Fanny Brice, Bill Robinson, Wings, Lilac Time, Showboat, Ted Healy, Bert Lahr, Willie Howard, Ethel and John and Lionel Barrymore, Helen Hayes, Good News, Follow Thru, Ziegfeld Follies, George White's Scandals, Earl Carroll's Vanities, Sophie Tucker, Joe Cook, Joe Frisco, Will Rogers, The Marx Brothers, The Ritz Brothers, et al, during the Roaring 20's, they were just a purr compared to what is being offered right now on the Las Vegas Strip.

If you have recollections of Anything Goes, Ethel Merman, Porgy and Bess, the Paradise and Hollywood Clubs, George S. Kaufman, Moss Hart, Walter Winchell, Connie's Inn, The Cotton Club, Leon and Eddies, The Royal Box, Copper Colored Gal, George Gershwin, The Little Show, Clifton Webb, Fred Allen, Libby Holman, Moanin' Low, Russ Colombo, Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, and the like, in the Thriving 30's. Cease and desist. They were nothing like the entertainment excitement being generated on the desert in Southern Nevada right now.

The Fabulous 40's, the Unforgettable 50's and the Celebrated 60's, all had their moments in our memories of the past, but believe us brother, none can hold a card against the cumulative offerings of today's Las Vegas.

Where else but the incomparable Las Vegas may you have the choice of entertainment we will unfold in following paragraphs, plus deluxe hotel accommodations, plus food that will delight the most discriminative gourmet, plus every vacationer's desire for swimming, boating, golfing, skiing, etc., and leave us not forget the insurmountable attraction of the only legalized gambling in the United States? You can enjoy, eat, and partake of your favorite sport to your heart's content, and THEN, if you are knowledgeable, careful, sensible, and LUCKY, you may even go home with all expenses paid
