Pepi Molasky, looking like a doll, attended the graduation exercises of daughter #1 Beth, from the University of Southern California. Pepi's mother, who recently underwent heart surgery, is doing so well she accompanied Pepi to see her grand-daughter graduate. (Aside to Pepi my dream might have been a nightmare, but nostradamus too, made predictions, and some have come to pass. Only Time will tell) in the meantime, Good Luck, have fun and continue to look as well as you do now.

Harry Levy's brother (Robert) opened up business in this fabulous city. The shop is called "Roberts" and is located in the Maryland Shopping Center. They have decorative accessories, Jewelry (which Robert designs) and unusual gifts. They are pretty, excellent quality and prices are cheap. It would be worth your while to give a look and familiarize yourself with what the store carries. Good luck to you Robert (you look so much like Harry, I was a bit stopped when I met you.) And your charming wife, Marion.

Harry and Jeane Levy all excited and anxiously looking forward to the forthcoming marriage of their first grand-daughter, Susan. She will say "I do the 25th of this month to Jay Lawrence Mass. All the doings will take place in Los Angeles. Parents of the bride who will be footing all the bills will be Art and Elaine Turk, former residents of Las Vegas. Mazel Tov.

Herman Adler recuperating after undergoing rather serious surgery he is in the sunrise Hospital.

Mark Tan, the popular columnist for the Hollywood Reporter and the Israelite, wants the world to know he has disassociated his interest in the ill-fated Forbidden City restaurant.

Proudest man in Las Vegas is Joe Kludjian, owner of the famous gourmet steak house, Golden Steer, who went to St. Louis to attend the high school graduation of his daughter, Nancy.

Bill Gill (son in law of Sophie and James Katzman) is now associated with J. Shapiro & co, stockbrokers. He can be reached at 732-1901 should you be interested in adding to your bank balance. Bill has been involved with the stock market for sometime and I am sure he can be of help to you. All calls will be accepted cheerfully, whether you purchase or question him regarding your stock problems. Good luck to you, Bill, in your new association.

Hank and Barbara, Greenspun shepped witnessed their number four offspring Danny, receive his degree from Mit. Good luck to you Danny and may you go far in your endeavors.

Louie Wiener's daughter, Valerie, announced her engagement to Charles Michael Baird. Wedding will take place in August. I remember when Valerie was just a tot, her grandmother Kittie Weiner and the rest of the family always referred to Valerie as "The Duchess." Valerie and her future husband are both interested in TV work. Congratulations.

Congratulations to all the new members on the Board of Hadassah. The installation of officers was held in the Bacchanal room of Caesars Palace Hotel. Attendance was very good and the ladies were dressed casually and in good taste. Those being installed were: Mrs. Sidney Lewis as Pre-

YIDDISH CLUB Kindle the Shabbat Candles

BY FRANCES SILVEY
The last meeting for the season of the YIDDISH CLUB included fascinating recount of round-the-world trip by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rubin.

Jan Pierce recordings and refreshments wound up a "geschmake" evening.

The club was formed so that members could keep up with our "Mama Luschen," and to enjoy being together in a Jewish atmosphere. Only Yiddish is spoken, no matter how haltingly.

Meetings will resume in the fall.

Officers: Mrs. Jack Sabbath, vice President of education; Mrs. Howard Goldman, vice president membership; Mrs. John Snure, vice president of prams; Mrs. Nathan Schwartz, vice president, programs; Mrs. Sam Dase to raise money for the organization needs; Mrs. Charles Fauci, treasurer; Mrs. Paul Blatt, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Jack Leonard financial secretary and Mrs. Hal Tuchman, recording secretary.

Mrs. Pauline Hirsch, west coast representative did the installing along with chairman of the event Mrs. William Klim, Mrs. Sol Bromberg (past president of the local chapter) and Mrs. John Quinn as co-chairman. As many of you know, but it is worth repeating, Hadassah is one of the oldest women's organizations who work for Israel and support the only cancer research medical center of its kind whose findings are shared throughout the world. It sponsors youth groups and trains youngsters, regardless of color or creed in 17 facets of medicine as well as in aeronautics. Carry on gals.....
