AMBASSADOR RABIN ANGRILY DENIES ENDORSING NIXON'S RE-ELECTION

RESOLUTIONS OF REFORM RABBIS

GROSSINGER N.Y. (WNS). -- The American Conference of American Rabbis at its 83rd annual convention adopted a resolution to withhold payment of the Federal excise tax on phone bills to protest the Vietnam War. The resolution called upon the CCAR's 1,100 members and the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion and the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, the Reform rabbinical seminary and congregational branch do the same.

Rabbi W. Gunther Plaut of Toronto, chairman of the CCAR's Sabbath Committee, launched a grass roots movement to return the Reform movement to a disciplined set of halachic (Jewish religious law) rules for daily living and religious practices.

At earlier sessions, the CCAR deferred taking a position on mixed marriages for another year to enable it to conduct additional research and analysis.

Israel's Ambassador to the United Nations, Yosef Tekoah, told the CCAR that the U.S. had not "abandoned attempts" to promote proximity talks between Israel and Egypt for an interim agreement to reopen the Suez Canal. Rabbi George B. Lieberman of Rockville Centre, N.Y., chairman of the Soviet Jewry Committee, told the convention he feared the Soviet Government may soon stop granting exit visas to Jews.

Golda Meir Statement

"ISRAEL'S POLICY - PAST, PRESENT, AND FUTURE IS NEVER TO INVOLVE ITSELF IN THE DOMESTIC POSITIONS OF ANY COUNTRY. IT IS SELF-EVIDENT THAT THIS APPLIES WITH RESPECT TO THE U.S. AS WELL, AND THERE HAS CERTAINLY BEEN NO CHANGE IN THIS POSITION. I AM CONFIDENT THAT THIS POLICY IS BEING CAREFULLY OBSERVED BY ISRAEL REPRESENTATIVES ABROAD."

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- Israel's Ambassador to the U.S., Yitzhak Rabin, angrily denied that he had expressed a preference for Pres. Nixon's re-election in an interview broadcast over the Israeli radio on the anniversary of the Six-Day War.

He said his statements, which appeared on the front page of the Washington Post were "misquoted" and "taken out of context" and charged that the dispatch by Yuval Elizur from Jerusalem was an "effort to cause great damage between the U.S. and Israel, between the American and Israeli people and between the Jewish communities in Israel and the U.S."

"One Man Plus The Truth Constitutes A Majority"

More Hanky Panky

Just when we had hoped the tired old subject of Sun Publisher Hank Greenspun's connivances was exhausted, he comes up with a few cuties to bamboozle, mislead and confuse the public.

We have proven, time and time again, that Greenspun is for Greenspun alone. Nearly everything he says and does is propelled by a selfish or vengeful motive. His latest caper is so obviously fraudulent as a benefit to the general public, it stands out as a wart would, on the tip of Elizabeth Taylor's nose.

There is no question in the mind of anyone whose parents didn't raise geese, that Greenspun is out to "GET" District Judge Howard Babcock. No matter what the good jurist says or does, the Sun publisher will distort the truth and twist the facts. Greenspun has called Babcock a crooked judge, a liar and a man who would accept a bribe for a favorable verdict. This stems from the decision rendered in favor of Howard Hughes to oust Bob Maheu as chief of Hughes Nevada Operations. The ramifications of the decision that affect Hank Greenspun, personally, are so overwhelming, Hank has become almost fiendish in his retaliation against Babcock.

So corrupt and despicable have been the Sun publisher's tactics against the honored judge, the entire Bar Association of Clark County voted unanimously to condemn Greenspun. This does not phase or dissuade the dishonest newspaperman. It appears he is more determined than ever to discredit and embarrass the good judge.

With the latest turn of events Greenspun now has a second personal cause to lambaste Judge Babcock, just like the bigots who are taking off against Sammy Davis Jr. for TWO reasons.

It appears that during a recent hearing on probation for a 19 year old drug addict, Judge Babcock, according to the story in the Review-Journal: "unleashed a heavy verbal barrage on Gov. Mike O'Callaghan, the state legislature and those thinking of running for office, for failure to provide a narcotics rehabilitation facility for Clark County."

This made Greenspun see red. The nerve, the gall, the effrontery of a judge to dare to criticize Hank's protegee and pet, the governor of Nevada, who follows every Greenspun whim and purpose.

What's that you say? You don't believe that Greenspun is running the state. You don't

NO DEATH PENALTY FOR JAP

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Kozo Okamoto, the Japanese terrorist who was captured in the aftermath of the Lydda

Airport massacre on May 30, will go on trial before a three-man military court in Rehovoth on June 19.

The Lawyers Council has selected prominent Tel Aviv lawyer Jacob Hagler to represent Okamoto.

Meanwhile, as plans for similar "Lydda style" massacres at air terminals in New York and Europe were disclosed by Okamoto to his interrogators, airports in Western Europe went on the alert and stringent security measures were reported at Copenhagen, Rome, Geneva, Zurich and Paris Orly Airport.

At the same time, West German authorities warned Danish officials that Palestinian terrorists may be planning to kidnap Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban who is touring Scandinavia, and hold him as a hostage for the release of Okamoto.

GAMBLING GLITTER: - Because the whole world is fascinated by gigantic payoffs for a pittance wager, and visa versa, we bring you a column of tidbits from the only legalized gambling state in the nation.

BEGINNER'S LUCK: A lady coming off the plane ran to a slot machine in the waiting room at McCarren Airport. With her first quarter she hit three bells for a payoff of $4.50. It was Friday afternoon. She squeaked with joy as she joined her friends in a cab to a Strip hotel. Sunday night on her way to the plane home, she paused at the same machine, scrounged around in her purse for a lonely quarter and hit a cherry for a payoff of fifty cents. She turned to her friends and said, "I started a winner and ended a winner, but in between I lost $4,600."

REPEATER: In the El Cortez a woman hit a $200 jackpot in a dime machine. As she played it off with a second dime, the machine
