

RABIN DENIES

(Continued from Page 1) tinguished between support in words and support in deeds, Rabin denied that he had related them to either "camp."

Israeli sources here noted that Rabin's interview had started with praise for Pres. Truman's support for Israel.

Rabin said that he was quoted correctly in the Post as saying that no other American President had made such a far-reaching statement, committing the U.S. to support Israel's existence as the statement made by Pres. Nixon upon his return from the summit conference in Moscow. The President said "Our summit conversations about the Middle East situation was also full, frank and extensive. I reiterated the American people's commitment to the survival of Israel and to a settlement just to all the

as Ambassador in Washington he had pursued that policy and would continue as long as he is ambassador.

BIRCH SOCIETY, WHICH OUSTED ANTI-SEMITES AND SUPPORTED ISRAEL, NOW DISSEMINATES ANTI-JEWISH PROPAGANDA.

"The Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith called upon Orange County Congressman John G. Schmitz to publicly repudiate his endorsement of None Dare Call It Conspiracy, an anti-Jewish paperback book written by Gary Allen, a longtime John Birch Society Pamphleteer and speaker, which is currently being distributed free on a massive scale by the Birch Society," said Harvey B. Schechter, ADL's Western States Fact-Finding Director.

"We are astonished," said Mr. Schechter, "that Congressman Schmitz, a political scientist by profession, would formally associate himself with this piece of anti-Jewish propaganda by writing the foreword to this book and commending it to the reading public." The Allen Book, according to Mr. Schechter, revives the anti-Jewish propaganda campaigns of the 1920's carried out by agents of the late Henry Ford, Sr. through the Dearborn Independent - - charges later repudiated publicly by Mr. Ford - - and revived in the 1930's by Father Charles E. Coughlin, the notorious radio-priest.

"We appealed to Congressman Schmitz, a political scientist, in the name of human decency and honest scholarship to publicly disassociate himself from this insidious scampan by the birch Society," said Mr. Schechter, "because the kinds of anti-Jewish lies contained in the Allen book have been used by hate groups throughout the world for more than 50 years to foster hatred of the Jews, and during the 1930's and 1940's we saw the ugly consequences of such campaigns."

"The John Birch Society has been plagued since its inception in 1958 by an inability or an unwillingness to keep the organization free of anti-Jewish bigotry, and the decision by Robert Welch, founder and head of the Birch Society, to distribute None Dare Call It Conspiracy by the millions may very well represent the final transformation of the organization from one that has been politically extreme to one that is committed to the dissemination of religious hatred and anti-Jewish propaganda," concluded Mr. Schechter.
