ENTERTAINMENT TRIP AROUND THE WORLD

DICK MCINNES

Londoners are whispering about THAT friendship between ANDRE PREVIN and a young talented music critic who just happens to be a very lovely brunette named GILLIAN WIDDICOMBE. Miss Widdicombe coyly tells all "If people see us together and say that we are friends, then we are friends." Previn is in Tel Aviv doing a concert tour and wife #3 MIA FARROW is in Brighton making her British stage debut in J.M. Barrie's "Mary Rose" so neither have been reached for comment but I can't wait for Mia's first album about losing her man if she follows in wife #2 DORY PREVIN's footsteps.

Meanwhile back in the Beverly Hills real life monopoly game I hear that JAMES STEWART, tired of not having enough privacy in his mansion, bought the house next door for $245,000, tore it down and built a wall around the property so he can walk around in privacy. Now what were you saying about Boardwalk and Park Place?

An Air Asian Airliner crashed into the Hollywood Hills in a blizzard with passengers PETER FINCH, MICHAEL YORK, BOBBY VAN, SALLY KELLERMAN AND GEORGE KENNEDY ABOARD. EAST ASIAN?? HOLLYWOOD HILLS?? BLIZZARD?? But of course it's only movie magic, courtesy of ROSS HUNTER and his "Lost Horizon" company. The cast was all bundled up in warm, warm clothes reenacting the plane crash. The special effects men were so successful in transforming Bronson Canyon in 85 degree weather into a windswept blizzardly corner of Tibet that SIR JOHN GIELGUD who rescued the stars was sneezing and coughing and Sally yelled out "Good work, boys. I'm

LIBERACE AT L.V. HILTON

The almost legendary showmanship that has kept Liberace one of the world's most popular entertainers for three decades was unveiled for the first time at the Las Vegas Hilton Hotel

June 22 when the colorful entertainer opened a special two-week engagement.

Appearing with "Mr. Showmanship" will be talented 14 year old singing sensation Jamie Redfern and the hilarious English acrobatic comedy team, the Jolly Jovers.

The Hilton date marks the 30th anniversary in show business for the piano player who came all the way from the depression to a point where he now spends $100,000 yearly on his sparkling, brocaded, costumes alone.

now blind and I'll never sing again." Well, Sally that's show Biz.

STRIP STRIPPING UP IN VEGAS: DIANA ROSS told the audience at Caesar's Palace last year was the big year for THE CARPENTERS and this year is the big one for THE CARPENTER and then goes into a "Jesus Christ Superstar" medley which leaves no doubt in anyone's mind that she is "Diana Ross Superstar of any year." While on stage she announced that she was pregnant again and when I saw her backstage, I reminded her that the first time I met her was at a party for TOM JONES also at Caesar's, she was pregnant. She just smiled and said "I guess that's what Caesar does to me." I wonder what hubby BOB SILBERSTEIN thinks of Caesar now.... Fellow columnist MARK TAN threw a little party while I was up there. A little party for Mark means 50% of all the people who are working on the Strip including ROBERT GOULET, TRINI LOPEZ, BRECK WALL, JOE PETERSON, BETTY WALDRON and JAN SUTTON (who is looking greater than ever, what's happening, Jan?) All of "Bottoms Up 73," the very warm and funny JOLLY JOVERS who open with LIBERACE at the Las Vegas Hilton, tall and beautiful SHARON DALE from the Silver Slipper who told me she is really a concert pianist (I'd much rather watch her than VAN CLIBURN) the entire cast of exciting new "Latin Fire" at the Thunderbird and WOW are there some cuties in that cast! GEORGE CHAKIRIS anxious for opening night of "Pipe Dream" at the Hilton and The Golden Greek Billy Dare just singing and playing that piano to a fare thee well plus rock promoter MIKE TELL and his parents ISRAELITERS JACK AND BEA TELL, German singer ANDREAS KRUIZENGA (I can spell it, I can't pronounce it) GARY COSTER and a host of others.
