

POLITICAL HOPEFULS

GUIDO RAVELO FOR ASSEMBLY

GUIDO

Guido Ravelo, age 36, has filed for Assembly District 19, North Las Vegas. His campaign chairman is former north Las Vegas police chief, Nick Janise, and campaign manager is Daryl Garner, a North Las Vegas Real Estate Broker. Guido has been a resident of North Las Vegas for over ten years. He has owned and operated a printing business for the past four years. He is a member of the culinary local 226 and has been associated with the Desert Inn for over ten years. Guido Ravelo resides at 3521 E. Hickey Avenue, North Las Vegas, with his daughter, age 12.

He is president of the Havana Country Club a newly organized Recreational facility and vice-president of the Cuban-American club. Guido was born in Havana, Cuba on Feb. 14, 1936. He came to the U.S. with his family in 1962 as a political refugee. He became a citizen in 1969.

"With reapportionment has come the opportunity for the Assemblymen to work directly with the voter. I plan to conduct a door to door campaign and find out what the citizens of North Las Vegas want for their community. After election I plan to keep in constant touch with the people through newsletters and personal contact so that they may be truly represented in the legislature. I am also in favor of consolidated services such as police, fire, etc. in Clark County. This would help bring about statewide emergency telephone service as is available throughout the major cities in the rest of the U.S.

I will also work for passage of no-fault insurance which would help the average working man through lower rates and more rapid processing of claims."

Guido Ravelo may be reached at his campaign headquarters, 2526 East Lase Mead Blvd, North Las Vegas, Telephone 642-8200 and is available there from noon to five P.M. daily.

KENNEY FOR STATE SENATE

Jack Kenney, 38, has filed as candidate for State Senate. Kenney will be seeking one of the four seats in Las Vegas Senate District 3 which includes the Greater Las Vegas area.

As owner of Kenney Trailer Sales and the developer of Bonanza Mobile Home Park, Kenney is best prepared to represent the over 13,000 mobile home owners in this area.

In his other business homebuilding, Kenney has built homes for over 600 families in Las Vegas since 1960. Currently his firm is building 172 homes in a planned unit development in the city.

Concerning the matter of taxation, Kenney takes a firm stand. He feels that taxes can best be stabilized by reducing unnecessary expenditures in the State budget. As a businessman responsible for administering a yearly payroll of over $1,000,000 Kenney will use the same care and knowledge in dealing with the State's budget as with his own corp. budget.

Kenney believes in increased educational opportunities for all. He will work to accelerate development and expansion of both vocational training facilities and the community college.

When elected Kenney will represent you as a full time Senator.

A 1955 graduate of Stanford University with a degree in Economics, he is a veteran, having served in the U.S. Army. Kenney is married and resides at 1230 S. 17th St. with his wife, Joan.

ROBERT EDWARDS FOR CONGRESS

Robert J. Edwards, a Republican candidate for U.S. Congress advocates private parking parks in Western Nevada, with heavy emphasis on security sanitation and special services.

Commercially, to attract the traveling public, 251 gasoline station in Southern California will be selected to represent us in the "Casino Gas Refunds Program."

Similar to the current Reno Gas Refunds program that you see at service stations in Northern California. However the "Casino Gas Refunds" offers the traveler a chance to visit all of Nevada and to use his Hospitality Coupons (refunds) statewide. . . . Basically it works like this, the Camper, Motor Home Operator, Trailer operators purchase at the selected stations $11.00 worth of gas/oil or services, he is given a Casino Refunds Receipt redeemable at one of our Parking Parks for a Booklet of Coupons worth $11.00 in cash and services.

Mr. Edwards a former Lobbyist for the Maryland Taxpayers Association in the State Legislature Assembly (State Senate and Delegates) is somewhat critical of the law makers and their prespective towards the recreational vehicles and quips that some of the local ordinances now on the books are as moderna as the Street Car Motor-mans gloves.

JOHNNY CARSON AT SAHARA

Johnny Carson, star of the internationally popular "The Tonight Show," opens a two week engagement at the Hotel Sahara Congo Showroom Aug. 19, (Saturday) with lovely songstress Phyllis McGuire as his special guest star.

He is a remarkable standup comedian with routines that cover a wide field of subjects ranging from Las Vegas to hospitals, to the famous Las Vegas pastime, divorce.

A favorite Carson classic is his interpretation of the inebriated kiddy show MC, Sheriff John, where the material and props are a perfect outlet for Carson's enigmity.

Striking Phyllis McGuire will be returning for her second appearance at the Sahara with Johnny.
