Sen. Howard Cannon co-sponsored a program designed to aid the states in their efforts to educate handicapped children.

Donald H. Sherlock has been appointed to the newly created position of Safety Manager for Southwest Gas Corporation, Biggs McWhorter, vice president of the utility has announced.

James C. De Vore has been promoted to Assistant Division Manager for Southwest Gas Corporation's Southern Nevada Division, Ralph W. Haven, division manager announced.

Three of public television's most popular science specials, "Our Violent Universe," "The Restless Earth," and "The Mind of Man," will return to PBS on successive Mondays starting Sept. 11 at 8 p.m. on Channel 10 on Special of the Week.

The untimely, auto-accident death of Terry Gold, has saddened all who knew him. Terry was the handsome, youngest son of Mike and Sylvia Gold, who recently sold KLUC radio. Terry and his dad ran the Big Dipper ice cream parlor on West Charleston.

Vote, Vote, vote do not give up this right. Only your vote can bring your favorite candidate in. Check and see that those who are running again, have done all they promised. Don't be surprised if they didn't but that is politics.

CHIC HECHT ELECTED TO NATIONAL POST

Nevada State Senator Chic Hecht has been elected as the new president of the National Counter Intelligence Corps Association.

Hecht was selected to head the 30,000 member organization at the group's 26th annual convention, just concluded in San Francisco.

Founded in 1946, the organization's membership is made up of former counter intelligence agents and include top ranking officials such as Dr. Henry Kissinger and several U.S. Senators and Congressmen.

A graduate of Washington University, Hecht has been a leading Las Vegas Businessman for 25 years. He entered politics in 1966 and became the first Republican elected to the State Senate from Las Vegas in a quarter century.

During the Laxalt administration Hecht served as minority leader of the State Senate.

Senator Hecht and his wife, Gail, have two daughters, Lori, 11, and Leslie, 9.
