Al Freeman, press agent for Sands Hotel since it opened on the Las Vegas Strip in 1952 passed in his sleep on Monday night. He will be missed. (There will be a full obituary next week.)

Bradford, Ill. Any loss to outstanding, loved by all Justice Mowbray, is a loss to all of us.

Temple Beth Sholom, of Las Vegas, an affiliate member of the United Synagogue of America, will sponsor dual High Holiday Services for the first time in its history. The Temple has recently expanded facilities on its spacious grounds, with the construction of its new Jewish Center Building. Mel Exber Temple President, issued the following statement: "Requests for seats from Jewish people visiting Las Vegas during the High Holiday season, have been increasing with each passing year. In answer to scores of request for seats from all over the country, as well as to accommodate the non-affiliated Jewish residents of Clark County, we are pleased to announce that Temple Beth Sholom will sponsor High Holiday Services in our New Jewish Center Building. These Services will be identical in every respect to those held in the main building."

Good news Nettie Feinstein, who was so critically ill, is home. Hickey Rabin, also is back home. (no phone calls please) Hickey needs a lot of rest. Also on the sick list, but now recovering is Silver haired Scotty Scott.

Hy Abrams busy as a bee now that he is building a hotel. Plans are almost ready and he says work will be around the clock. Place of construction will be opposite the Tropicana. Hy hopes to make this the place for everyone as he will have one price for the rooms and drinks will also be most reasonable. Good luck Hy. Now that Hy is active, he looks much better and he feels better to quote him.
