

BY THE FIRST OF THE YEAR THE SIGN AT THE TOP, DISPLAYED HERE BY TOM COOPER OF THE CLARK COUNTY TRAFFIC DEPARTMENT AND JACK SCHOFIELD OF THE CLARK COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT, WILL REPLACE THE OLDER SIGN AT THE BOTTOM. FOR A WHILE, HOWEVER, WATCH FOR BOTH KINDS OF SIGNS, AND REMEMBER THAT SCHOOL AGE CHILDREN ARE USING THOSE SCHOOL CROSSINGS.

FREMONT GOLF INVITATIONAL

A limited number of entries from Las Vegas golfers will be accepted for the Freddie Fremont Invitational, set for Sept. 20-21, according to James Hill, president of the Fremont Hotel. The tournament, which is the successor to the Hotel Fremont Golf Classic of past yr, is expected to draw entrants from all parts of the country, in addition to locals.

The Cadillacs will be offered along with a lengthy list of prizes to both an individual and team basis. The entrance fee is $50 per player, and entries may be submitted to the casino cashier at the Fremont.

In submitting their entries, golfers will receive a giant welcoming cocktail party, several gifts and a big awards dinner and show in the Fremont Fiesta Room, in addition to greens fees, electric carts & other tournament expenses.

On the first day, the Chapman System will be used. Players will be credit with 50% of their handicap as they each tee off and then hit their partner's second shot. Following the second shot, the team will decide which ball they want to play out, and the golfers will alternate shots.

Hill will be assisted by a golf committee composed of Myron Friedman, Don Vacca, Jim Berry and Mickey Perlowin for planning all facets of the Freddie Fremont Invitational.

The Fremont president said total entries in the tournament are limited and will be accepted on a first-come-first-served basis.

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- George McGovern, the Democratic Presidential nominee, denied that a close political campaign aide, Rick Sterns, was pro-Arab. At a press conference, McGovern said "Sterns is not an anti-Israel person, His views are the same as mine. As far as this campaign is concerned, we are fully committed to the support of Israel."

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- El Al maintenance crews ended a slow-down strike and operations went back to normal at Lydda Airport.
