

REMOVAL OF NYC ANTI-SEMITIC

NEW YORK (WNS) -- rights leaders to remove Louis Fuentes, an alleged anti-Semite, from his newly appointed position as school superintendent of School District Number One on the Lower East Side. They demanded Fuentes' removal because of his "blatant bias" and "well documented" anti-Semitism.

Mrs. Natalie Schutzer the only Jewish member of the school board of District One, said Fuentes was appointed by the board's six "militant" members while the three "moderate" members were absent. "There were six candidates for the job," she said. "They (the board) picked the worse one."
