

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Two Jews were elected to the Anti-Poverty Board in the Rockaways.

Rosh Hashanah Message 5733-1972

BY MELVIN DUBINSKY

CHAIRMAN, UNITED ISRAEL APPEAL
The Jewish Year 5733 holds a special inspiration and significance for Jews everywhere.

Simultaneously with the observance of Rosh Hashanah, American Jews, together with the people of Israel, will begin a year long celebration of Israel's 25th Anniversary year.

With pride and joy, together with Israel's friends of all faiths, we will give thanks that we have lived to see this remarkable day.

It seems only yesterday that we were engaged in a frantic struggle to save the shattered remnant of our people who survived the Hitler holocaust.

And it seems hardly more than a few months ago that we saw the besieged people of Israel proclaim their State, take up arms for independence, and throw open the gates of the land for every homeless Jew.

We see a courageous citizenry and great leaders who have not only met crisis after crisis but have made inspiring progress in economic development, the arts, education, science, and asocial welfare. Human welfare and human freedom have been strengthened by Israel's existence.

Twenty-five years, then have produced towering achievements. But they have not brought an end to great challenges and responsibilities.

These continue. Thousands on thousands of additional would-be-immigrants still seek to come from lands of oppression. Great programs of education, of social welfare, of housing and of economic development must be carried forward.

So for all who take pride in Israel's 25th Anniversary year, there is something else we must do. Even as we celebrate, we must re-dedicate ourselves to the work ahead, knowing that we are better equipped to meet tomorrow's tasks, because we met yesterday's challenges.
