

RADIO IS BACK WITH OLD FAVORITES ON KVOV EV NEWMAN'S "OPEN LINE" STAYS

Radio is back. Or maybe it has really never gone away.

Cy Newman President and General Manager of KVOV Radio, Henderson Las Vegas, announced that he is making sweeping changes in KVOV's format effective October 2nd.

Starting on that date, Monday thru Friday, KVOV Radio is bringing back the old radio favorites. On a daily basis, listeners will again be hearing such all-time radio favorites as Gang Buster, Fibber McGee and Molly, The Lone Ranger, Easy Aces, The Shadow, Lum 'n Abner and dozens more of the programs that seemed to have disappeared in the late '40s.

Evelyn Newman's "Open Line" 2-way talk program will remain in the 8:30-10:30 am slot. Since taking over as host of "Open Line" 2 1/2 years ago, Mrs. Newman has grown to be the most-listened-to talk program host in Las Vegas radio history.

Radio Bingo also returns and will be heard Monday thru Friday 11:00-11:30 am on KVOV Radio with cash prizes.

Weekdays, the schedule will be rounded out with comedy records --- Redd Foxx, Bob & Ray David Frye, Bill Cosby, Allen Sherman, Flip Wilson and many more. There will be hourly newscasts from the Mutual Black Network and 2 sportscasts daily featuring G.L. Vitto. Saturdays and Sundays, the KVOV program schedule will remain as it has been for the past 3 years. Soul music, Rhythm and Blues and Gospel music will be heard throughout the day along with religious programs, Spanish language programming and Johnny Swift's Jazz Show.

Man of Distinction

BY RABBI SAMUEL SILVER

Before you can practice law in Fairfield, Conn., you and your credentials must pass in review before an admission committee.

Chairman of that group is Judge Joseph Shapiro has helped to enrich the intellectual and spiritual life of our country.

Known throughout the world, the energetic and erudite lawyer once represented the Masons of the U.S. at a high-level gathering in Israel attended by many jurists and dignitaries.

Along with another eminent resident of his state, Rabbi Abraham J. Feldman, Judge Shapiro was invited to become a 33rd degree mason some years ago. They agreed providing that it meant a breakthrough for other Jews. It was.

Judge Shapiro was a favorite of the late Rabbi Stephen Wise, who officiated at his marriage to a Norfolk native nee Helen Rosenstein. The judge was the permanent moderator of a forum conducted in a Bridgeport church some years ago.

As such he entertained and introduced the world's most famous people. A forum perennial was Stephen Wise, and the Shapiro children can remember being dandled on Wise's capacious knees.

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Two Oriental youths, Avraham Azolai and Meir Levi, both 19 were arrested and charged with the killing of a young soldier, Moshe Green, 18, who had recently emigrated from the Soviet Union. Green died of wounds suffered in a fight when Sephardi youths crashed a Rosh Hashanah eve party given by Russian emigres to celebrate their first year in Israel.

DURBAN, SOUTH AFRICA (WNS) -- Chief Gatsha Buthelezi, Chief minister of KwaZulu, the Zulu homeland, speaking at the Durban Jewish Club, praised "those Jewish South Africans who have stuck their necks out for the dispossessed and the powerless" in South Africa. It was the first time a head of an African homeland has been the guest of the Jewish community.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Anwar El Khatib, former governor of East Jerusalem when it was part of Jordan, after returning from a visit to Amman where he met with King Hussein, told newsmen that Jordan was determined not to reach a separate peace settlement with Israel.

BIET DAGAN, ISRAEL -- Mrs. Irving Pilavin of Providence, Rhode Island, and several members of her family arrived in Israel for a Sept. 25th dedication of the first of three pre-kindergartens she has sponsored through the Israel Education Fund of the United Jewish Appeal.

Darshan

BY RABBI SAMUEL SILVER

Have you ever heard the word, Darshan? It's Hebrew for "preacher." You expect the preacher to be a professional don't you?

And in most cases he is. But in a Conservative synagogue in North Hollywood, Calif., the pulpiteer of a Saturday morning might be a layman.

Indeed, so many laymen at the Valley Jewish Community Center and Temple have preached so many excellent sermons that dozens of them have been published.

Edited by the past president of the synagogue, Arthur Hoffnung, that book "For Love of Torah," is one of the most amazing volumes in American Jewish history.

The book contains observations on the meaning of Judaism for today's living by no less than 103 members of that congregation.

But since the publication of the book, which has been given the Solomon Shechter Award by the United Synagogue, dozens of other members of this remarkable shul have stood up before the congregation to expound the sedra of the week.

Credit must go to Rabbi Aaron Wise for inspiring his people to use their minds so dexterously. Some rabbis would be jealous that laymen have excelled in preaching. But Rabbi Wise is pleased and proud. You will too if you get a copy of that book.

The book contains not only the thoughts of many Darshanim but also of many a darshanit. What's that, you ask? A female preacher; they also abound at the exceptional synagogue in Calif.
