

JERUSALEM FAIR
IN L.A. NOV. 23

Southern Californians will be able to visit Israel without leaving Los Angeles during festivities beginning Nov. 23 through Dec. 3 at the Los Angeles Convention Center celebrating the Silver Anniversary of the State of Israel.

The Jerusalem Fair is being organized by the Israel Silver Anniversary Committee of Greater Los Angeles. Industrialist and civic leader Victor M. Carter, has been named chairman with Albert A. Spiegel, President of the Jewish Federation Council, I. Hershey Gold, General Chairman of the Los Angeles Committee for State of Israel Bonds and Rabbi Jacob Ott, President of the Los Angeles Rabbinical Council, acting as co-chairmen. Frank Cullen, long-time professional special events organizer, will serve as Dir., of the event.

Heart of the Jerusalem Fair will include exhibits and displays depicting the Israel of today with the technological and commercial developments of the modern nation-state.

The silver anniversary of the State of Israel was officially proclaimed by President Zalman Shazar in Tel Aviv on Sept. 25 with Israeli ambassador to the U.S. Yitzhak Rabin making a simultaneous announcement of the Jubilee Year in Washington, D.C.

According to Israeli Consul General Yeheskel Carmel, "This will be the largest celebration of its kind in the world outside of Israel. It will provide a chance for those who would like to visit the Holy Land to preview the vast industrial, cultural and commercial advancements made by our tiny country in 25 years. We hope all our friends in Southern California will join in helping us celebrate our 25th birthday!"

NO TERROR FROM ISRAEL

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Israeli authorities this week intensified its investigation of arms smuggling, which is allegedly being conducted for the purpose of staging a private war against Arab terrorist abroad. In addition, police detained Rabbi Meir Kahane, leader of the Jewish Defense League and Yosef Schneider, JDL secretary, here for questioning in connection with the smuggling.

Kahane, who was reportedly about to leave the country when picked up by police, apparently refused to cooperate with authorities. Both Kahane and Schneider had been questioned last week in connection with the seizure at Lod Airport of a crate of arms and ammunition as it was about to be shipped abroad. At that time, the two admitted JDL involvement with the smuggling.

The orchestra, under the direction of Zubin Mehta, gave two performances and was heavily guarded by police and military units, particularly the concert attended by Venezuela's President, Rafael Caldera and his wife.
