Joseph M. Kadans Commission President said that some recommended changes included additional lighting in parking lots, additional security guards, closer collaboration with the Clark County sheriff, acquisition of additional radio, electronic and telephonic equipment & changing of door locks to hotel rooms whenever a guest checks out and a key is missing.

According to Kadans the Commission will continue working with hotels, security chiefs and law enforcement officials to implement the recommendations of the special committee studying the problem, headed by Lou Tabat, Commission vice-president.
