

NEW YORK -- Israel's Yad L' Achim, the non-partisan organization that does yeoman work in assisting religious Russian immigrants, has responded to the increased tempo of immigration by expanding its efforts in this vitally crucial field.

NEW YORK -- Summer vacation in Israel's major higher yeshivos isn't long - only three weeks. But, thanks to Yad L' Achim, about ten senior students put those weeks to a use by forming a miniature summer yeshiva in Moshav Yerucham.

NEW YORK -- The American Jewish Congress called on the U.S. Congress to enact special emergency legislation that would protect the nation's elderly by requiring state officials to disregard the new Social Security increase in computing eligibility for other Federally-funded health and welfare benefits.

UNITED NATIONS (WNS) -- An attempt to insert an item which would have delayed discussion of international terrorism on the agenda of the General Assembly's Sixth (Legal) Committee was rejected.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Mrs. Max N. Matzkin president of Hadassah, urged President Nixon in a telegram to withhold favored nation status and the granting of large scale loans to the Soviet Union until the education tax levied on would be immigrants to Israel was stopped.

BALTIMORE (WNS) -- Baltimore, Tucson, Arizona and Boston were among the three cities who have, in the past few days, participated in welcoming the arrival of the Torch of Independence, lit in Jerusalem by Israel's President Zalman Shazar.

WASHINGTON -- A campaign of encouraging their respective governments to support a UN Convention against terrorism is being initiated by its affiliates throughout the world. B'nai B'rith reported this week.
