LAW SUIT TO TAX U.J.A. FUNDS

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- Seven avowed anti-Zionists are suing the Treasury Secretary George P. Schultz and Internal Revenue Commissioner Johnnie M. Walters to ban exemptions of U. S. taxes on funds collected in the U.S. by the United Jewish Appeal and the United Israel Appeal.

The suit demands that Schultz and Walters "collect all sums now due and owing" as a result of tax exemption, "plus damages and interest."

Sale of Israel government bonds, foreign aid loans, grants and transfers are not included in the suit. UJA officials have declined comment until they have a chance to study the text of the suit.

The plaintiffs are: Norman F. Dacey of So-uthbury, Conn.; Prof. Abraham Abu Lughod, University; Prof. Nor- ton Mezvinsky of Conn., State College; and Michael K. Ross, a Seattle lawyer and legislator.
