The Nevada Tuberculosis and Respiratory Health Association awarded a $10,000 check to the University of Nevada Las Vegas Thursday to help support the school's new four-year degree program in nursing.

Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist, author, and Civil War historian Bruce Catton recalls his boyhood experiences in the heartland of America in his new book Waiting for the Morning Train on "Book Beat" Monday, November 27, at 9:30 p.m. on TV-10.

Nevada Diabetes Association continues free testing for next two weeks at all drug stores.

The Internal Revenue Service and Food Fair Stores, Inc., following an intensive audit by the Internal Revenue Service and review by Food Fair, have reached an agreement on the computation and method of monitoring prices in the food chain. Warren Bates, Reno District Director, said today. All grocery and produce items will be priced on an item basis -- as opposed to pricing by category, such as grocery department, produce department etc. -- under the IRS - Food Fair agreement.

A volunteer man and woman are needed to go bowling with an adult group Tuesdays at 12:30 p.m. or Fridays at 10 a.m. According to Margaret Purdue, executive director of the Volunteer Bureau of Clark County, bowling fees for these volunteers will be paid.

The PBS will present

YIDDISH CLUB Kindle the Shabbat Candles

Strictly speaking, it's not a club, as we pay no dues and elect, no officers. It's more of a gathering Monday nights at 8 P.M., where we get together to discuss current events, especially relating to the Jewish people and the State of Israel.

Anecdotes of occurrences "in the old country" are told, some jokes, and we even sing songs so dear to us and to our parents -- all in Yiddish, of course, that is the real purpose of the club -- to keep alive the Yiddish language. Incidentally, a number of colleges and universities now have such courses.

The chairmanship is rotated from week to week. Last week Mr. Harry Rubin did the honors. Mr. Max Milgram read a humorous story from the "Forward" New York's sole surviving daily newspaper.

If you are fluent in the use of the Yiddish language join us. You will find it delightful and enlightening. Novice or old-timer, American or European born, "nit ge-deiget," we have all accents, both fluent and rusty; you many just sit and listen until your ear becomes attuned and you get the courage to try. In a crowd like ours, everyone throws in the words you stumble on. No particular age group, singles or couples, a worth-while evening in good company. Mondays 8 P.M. Plus coffee and cake.

Volunteer parents' programs in Clark County will be featured in a forthcoming edition of "Synthesis," a unique talking magazine published by School Management Institute of Santa Barbara, Calif.
