

MUCH FRENCH MONEY TO ISRAEL

PARIS (WNS) -- The President of the Funds Social Juif Unifie- the central French-Jewish Welfare organization - said here that too much French money goes to Israel and, as a consequence the local Jewish community is reduced to "a distress budget." Guy de Rothschild, head of the famous Jewish banking family, warned that unless the current distribution of United Jewish Appeal funds, two-thirds to Israel and one-third for local needs, is changed "we might have to reconsider the continued existence of a joint fund-raising campaign." Rothschild was addressing the FSJU General Assembly which approved a new constitution providing its democratization and rejuvenation.

The French Jewish leader said that French Jewry which has integrated more than 250,000 Jews since the end of the war, doubling its size, is now forced to close down homes for the aged, youth hostels, schools and social and cultural facilities for lack of money. He said that he is due to meet with Jewish Agency Chairman Louis Pincus and will raise this issue with him.

A number of delegates expressed their disagreement. Michel Topiol, UJA national President for France, said that "first priority must be given to Israel's needs." Topiol, who is also president of the Jewish Agency in France, added "The heart of every Jew is in Israel and Israel's needs are our needs."

Another delegate, Salomon Friederich, Secretary General of the France-Israel Alliance, said that the solution to the problem is not to reduce Israel's share but to increase the overall amount of money raised by the UJA in France.
