STRIP HOPPING NOT TO BE MISSED. ANN MARGRET is back in action in her all new "Ann-Margret '73" revue now at the Las Vegas Hilton. Ann-Margret, fully recovered from her 25-foot fall earlier this year at the Sahara Tahoe, has already been booked back at the Hilton for another date in February. Between the A-M engagements will be celluloid siren RAQUEL WELCH opening Dec. 22 in her nightclub debut. At the Sahara the madcap comedy of MISS JOAN RIVERS costarring with singer-impressionist Frank Gorshin. This is Joan's Sahara bow. The very same Miss Rivers will be hosting Johnny Carson's "Tonight Show" for her 40th time on December 8. Also at the Sahara, NANCY SINATRA has been firm to replace SONNY & CHER who bowed out of their scheduled Dec. 22 return at the Congo Room. "PARIS SCOPE" the new edition of the "Lido de Paris" opening at the Stardust on Dec. 28 will have England's THE JOLLY JOVERS and comedy magician team MILO & ROGER among the featured acts. Milo and Roger recently closed as stars of BARRY ASHTON'S "PARIS SCANDALE" at the Americana Hotel in Miami. FLORENCE HENDERSON of TV's "Brady Bunch" now costarring with Don Adams at the Sands, opens an eight day stand at the new Disneyland World Hotel in Orlando, Florida opening New Year's Eve. Songbird PAM CARRIE, who has yet to be signed for her Vegas bow, opens this week at the revamped Coconut Grove at the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles. The talented and dynamic Miss Carrie is overdue for Strip exposure. She's played top rooms around the country including New York, Chicago, and Miami; her Grove debut is her first major West Coast outing.

DON ADAMS, COMEDY STAR WHO ZOOMED TO FAME AS THE SUPER SLEUTH OF TV'S "GET SMART" RETURNS TO THE SANDS COPA ROOM FOR A TWO-WEEK ENGAGEMENT. THIS WILL MARK HIS 12TH APPEARANCE SINCE JOINING THE SANDS FAMILY OF STARS. TEAMED WITH ADAMS WILL BE SINGER-COMEDIENNE, FLORENCE HENDERSON, WELL-KNOWN FOR HER LEADING ROLE IN "THE SOUND OF MUSIC" AS WELL AS NUMEROUS TELEVISION AND NIGHTCLUB PERFORMANCES. ADAMS AND MISS HENDERSON WILL BE IN THE SANDS COPA ROOM THROUGH DECEMBER 12.

WEEKEND WANDERERS. Saturday, December 2 is the night (the ONLY night) of the Las Vegas appearance of CELIA CRUZ, the international queen of Afro-Cuban music. Miss Cruz will guest star in both shows of MANOLO TORRENTE & FREDDY MANJON'S "LATIN FIRE '73" at the Thunderbird. The Cuban star's most recent American engagements have been at the Chateau Madrid in New York. On Dec. 3, Miss Cruz will guest star at the annual "FIESTA DE SANTA BARBARA." Manolo and Freddy's annual invitation only bash at the Thunderbird starting at midnight Sunday. WAYNE NIWTON, currently at the Frontier (and opening Dec. 13 at the Sands) will be master of ceremonies at the "Miss Rodeo America 1973" pageant coronation finale tonight (Nov. 30) at the Frontier. PAUL ANKA opens tonight at Caesars Palace. Anka's engagement is a short one the closes Dec. 6. The Circus Maximus showroom goes dark from Dec. 7 to 20, reopening with SILVI LAWRENCE & LYDIE GORME on Dec. 21.

STRIP BITS & PIECES. The wheels are in motion to bring the award winning hit musical "DON'T BOTHER ME, I CAN'T COPE" to a Las Vegas stage in early January. The smash show is currently running simultaneously in New York on Broadway and in Los Angeles at the Huntington Hartford Theater. One of the stars is none other than PAULA KELLY who has tons of fans here from her various appearances including her co-starring stint with "SWIFT Juliet Prowse CHARITY" at Caesars Palace. Word from L.A. is that Paula steals the show with her brilliant vignette as Billie Holliday. Speaking of Billie, don't miss DIANA ROSS in her stunning motion picture triumph "Lady Sings the Blues." Miss Ross, a sure contender for this year's Oscars race, will be returning to Caesars Palace in early '73, and has a raft of movie scripts pouring in for her next starring vehicle. Beginning the new year in February will be MARTY ALLEN & CASS ELLIOTT at the Flamingo, RIP TAYLOR at the Sahara Casbar and ANN MARGRET at the Hilton. Singer BILLY DARE off to a six week tour of the Orient including Manila, Taipei, Okinawa and the newest Pacific Paradise resort of Guam. Dare will be working both solo and in tandem with just close at the Bonanza BETTY REILLY, The Irish Senorita.

THE MUSIC MAKERS. DUKE EDDINGTON at the Hilton Casino Theater alternating with new musical groups THE CREATIVE SOURCE and MIKEY, LARRY & THE EXCHERS. FIONA HAMPTON returns to the Strip on Dec. 9 at the Stardust. PUPU CAMPO and his Latin combo at Caesars Palace, on Cleopatra's Barge. DIANNE EDDINGTON at the Sky Room of the Desert Inn. DIANE ELLIOTT at the Sky Room of the Landmark. PHYLLIS & BOBBY SILVERWOOD at the Silver Slipper. WELCOME STRIPPERS!!!
