

SUPER SUPPER CLUB
dinner.

"Though this is a landmark decision," said Landmark General Manager Perry Lieber, "the move was dictated, in part, by the people of Las Vegas." Lieber explained, "The House of Prime Rib on our 27th floor was tremendously popular, so much so that the overflow was hurting us. We know that a lot of our business up there was local. By moving this fine dinner into what was our Landmark Theatre, we are more than doubling our seating (from 170 to over 400). We are saying, in effect, Thank You, Las Vegas -- We have heard you - and responded by providing more convenience, adding entertainment - and, at the same low price - $3.95."

The dinner show policy provides for the complete menu being served from 6 p.m. to midnight. The entertainment continues into the morning hours with a special show.

The Supper Club is a free-flow room - with the gourmet fare and entertainment continuous. Landmark Hotel Director Bob Case explained, "With this format, guests may dine and watch the show any time. Show times are 6, 7:30, and 9 p.m., but regardless of when they enter, guests may dine at their leisure - while watching a complete show. The variety of entertainment is scheduled in a sequence which allows every guest to see an entire show, regardless of when they enter."

The move reflects a shift in position on the hotel's entertainment policy. A variety of entertainments will be offered, largely showcasing fresh talent, new to the Las Vegas scene. Case explained, "There is a vast, untapped vein of young talent in this country. We are now providing a stage for this talent in the entertainment capital of the world. We are offering our guests a "first" in Las Vegas. While we will probably offer great acts which have appeared in Las Vegas previously, for the most part our entertainment offering will be in keeping with the entire supper club concept - new to Las Vegas."

The specialty of the House of Prime Rib has moved, but the spacious room with the breathtaking view will remain very active and available to the Las Vegas and others. The room will now serve as the main banquet facility for the hotel accommodating small and large groups up to 450.

Club 27, located between the new banquet room area and the Mandarin Room, will remain open for the convenience and servicing of guests of the surrounding facilities. The Mandarin Room, offering the city's finest in Oriental cuisine with the city's finest view, remains open nightly from 6 p.m. to midnight.
