Dear Jack:

Writing long distance about Las Vegas from Hollywood is actually fun because you see Vegas through someone else's eyes.

Mrs. Alexi Myers (wife of Universal set designer Hank) told me she got wonderful treatment at the Stardust and enjoyed the shows. She gave me a chuckle when she asked Milton Frank if he had the time and replied, "Time for what?" Reckon that Milt Frank will never change -- he wants to be a funny man.

Herb Eden, who just worked the Frontier Hotel in Las Vegas, is now at the Playboy Club in Hollywood and they love him. Understand he is opening at the Desert Inn shortly. Hope it's true because he draws business.

Sam (Bathhouse) Rosen and friends at the Frontier got a beautiful write-up on the front page of the L. A. Times. But when Ruth Karp visited the World of Beauty, she told Miriam that Jim (Piggy) Moore broke her up when he told her that the friendly neighborhood kidnapper called her husband, Herman, and said "I have your wife, I want $1,000." Herman said, "Keep her, I'll pay."

Attorney Phil Feldman of Van Nuys tells me that the best stop in Vegas is the Landmark. While he was there last week, and he swears it's true. The Maitre D' asked him, "You're an attorney, tell me, who is the speaker in the House?" Feldman replied, "My wife, Reggie, of course."

Bennie Binion of the Horseshoe Club always has a cute story to tell, about the old guy who used to walk up and down on Fremont Street past his famous establishment. One day Bennie asked him, "How do you feel?" This old guy turned around and said to Bennie, "None of your business." Incidentally, Bennie still owes me a set of Antlers for my den. He offered them to me when we were together at the Silvagni home a couple of years ago.

Roger Osterholm tells me that the Temple has amateur night every Friday and Saturday until they find a new Rabbi. I would say I can qualify because I can say "Peace on You" in seven languages.

Irving Corbin (Corbs Handyman) claims a woman's work is never done unless her husband does it.

I was urging Frank Catania to take his vacation in Las Vegas and he told me he planned to go to Alaska. I said to him, "Don't go to Alaska -- it's not so hot."

We'll send another newsletter two weeks from now.

Happy Holiday.

/s/ AL KIRSCHNER

To All Temple Members:

The calendar year 1972 is drawing to a close. This is the time therefore, to review your charitable contributions for the past twelve months, and consider the possible advantages of additional donations before December 31st of this year.

I respectfully suggest that you check with your accountant or tax consultant, to be sure that you are taking the legal maximum deductions allowable on your income for 1972. It may be advantageous to you, to contribute additionally before the year ends.

On behalf of our President, Mel Exber, our Cantor, and myself, I extend best wishes to you and your loved ones for a blessed year to come in 1973.

Cordially yours,

/s/ LEO A. WILNER
Executive Director

Dear Friend:

On December 1, 1972 I submitted my resignation as Executive Director of the Clark County Unit, American Cancer Society. My last day in the office will be Dec. 15th. If there is anything I can do for you until that date, please do not hesitate to call me.

I know you will continue to keep working for the goals of the American Cancer Society. The fight against this dread disease must go on. So many people are depending on you. Please don't let them down.

Again, my most sincere thanks to you for everything and good-bye.

Sincerely,

/s/ JOE SMITH

Dear Bea and Jack:

Thank you for everything these past years. You both are the tops.

Sincerely,

/s/ JOE SMITH

(ED. NOTE: Wherever you go, whatever you do, our hearts and well-wishes go with you. Jack and Bea.)

Dear Sir:

I would appreciate very much if you would place my name and address in your corresponding column, as follows. I would enjoy corresponding with someone who is liberal-minded and sincere at trying to help another human being. I will answer all letters.

Thank you.
