

JEWISH LEADERS PROTEST BOMBINGS

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- Rabbis and Jewish leaders from all parts of the country converged on the nation's capital this week in an inter-faith protest against the war in Vietnam. The protest, sponsored by the American Friends Service Committee and Clergy and a Laity Concerned, is aimed at getting religious groups into the offices of Congressman. Rabbi Bal-four Brickner, director of Inter-faith activities for the Union of American Hebrew Congregations spoke on behalf of Jewish groups at a meeting.

The Chicago Board of Rabbis has asked president Nixon "to call a halt to the escalated bombings in North Vietnam and to return to the stance of negotiations with patience and with firmness." Meanwhile, in Paris the Bernard Lazare Circle, a left-wing Zionist organization, said the renewed bombing, "completely shatters the hopes of those who thought that peace had finally come to Indochina," and called upon its members "and progressive Jewish opinion everywhere" to demonstrate its "active solidarity with the Vietnamese people."

U.S. MAOISTS SUPPORT ANTI-ISRAEL SPIES

NEW YORK (WNS) -- The Progressive Labor Party, the official Maoist organization in the United States, has come to the defense of members of the Syrian-directed spy ring arrested in Israel several weeks ago.

The Jan. 11 issue of "Challenge," the PLP mouthpiece, said the group was part of "a handful of Jewish and Arab working people (who formed the Revolutionary Communist Alliance. . .) to win both Jewish and Arab workers to unite and fight for socialism" in Israel.

RUSSIAN BIAS GOES ON AND ON

LONDON (WNS)--The Moscow synagogue on Archipovo Street was placed under heavy guard on the day amnesties were granted for the Soviet Union's 50th anniversary, and worshippers were not permitted to congregate outside it, Jewish sources in the Soviet Union reported. They also reported the release of Jews sentenced to 15-day jail terms for "hooliganism" after staging a sit-in at the Supreme Soviet Dec. 18 to demand amnesties for Jewish political prisoners.

According to the Student Struggle for Soviet Jewry in New York, Solomon Dreizner, 41, a defendant in the second Leningrad trial serving a three-year sentence at the Potma forced labor camp, is facing severe and unjust punishment for striking back when

The Alliance, formed last year, was an event, "which, though small in itself, could have catastrophic potential consequences for Zionists and their U. S. masters," because it was prepared to expose Israel as a puppet of American imperialism and as a friend of some of the most reactionary regimes in Asia, Challenge said.

It also said, "Dan Vered, one of the four arrested Israelis, wrote to PLP last year on the class struggle in the Mideast and his comrades' program to help lead it."

attacked by a fellow prisoner.

The National Conference on Soviet Jewry reported that the purge of Jewish musicians from the Moscow radio orchestra is continuing.

NO DEATHS AMONG MANAGUA JEWS

NEW YORK (WNS) -- The American Jewish Committee reported there were no deaths among the 120 Jews living in Managua, Nicaragua during the recent earthquake, although their synagogue and most of their possessions were destroyed. Managua's Jewish community secretary, Leonardo Hellenberg, has estimated Jewish losses at $2-3 million and that it would take at least eight months to rebuild.

Meanwhile, 50,000 pounds of food purchased by the Israeli government in Miami for the relief of the earthquake victims has left Miami for Nicaragua. The cartons carried the inscription, "Food for the children of Nicaragua from Israel. Shalom." In addition, a Jewish Central American delegation has gone to Nicaragua to assist victims.
