DANCE AS WELL AS DINE AT LANDMARK

Dancing is being added to the format of dining and entertainment at the Landmark's Supper Club. The super-successful theatre restaurant will add the new wrinkle to supper club dining in Las Vegas on Wednesday, January 17th.

The Supper Club will continue to offer three dinner shows nightly, at 6, 7:30 and 9 p.m. Then, commencing at 10:15, the late shows offer patrons the opportunity to join in the fun with dancing until 3 a.m.

To provide the music for the late show dancing, the Landmark is bringing the tremendously popular group, Joy! down from the Sky Top Rendezvous on the 31st floor. Joy!, Canada's #1 dance - show group, made their debut in the Landmark tower a few months ago, and have been largely responsible for the tremendous success of the Sky Top Rendezvous.

success. During the first 25 days of November, the Landmark Supper Club served over 20,000 dinners. During the same period a year before, the Landmark Theatre, with "name" entertainment policy, served 9,000 dinners. The November figures for 1972, under the new policy, show that the Landmark Supper Club Theatre surpassed most major showrooms in the city of Las Vegas.

The Landmark Supper Club offers the best of both worlds - providing sumptuous dining coupled in a sparkling variety of entertainment. From 6 p.m. each evening, Landmark guests are treated to a complete menu headed by the prime rib dinner made so popular in the hotel's famed House of Prime Rib. Though the hotel has added a stage show to the menu - management reversed a common trend -- by not increasing the price of the dinner.

Now - with no cover and no minimum, Landmark Supper Club patrons are offered late-show dancing.

AN IDEAL COMBINATION

Once in a show business moon along comes an ideal combination of co-starring talents that generates what, in the lingo, is called "perfect chemistry". Such a teaming is on display in the Desert Inn's Crystal Room where versatile Juliet Prowse and riotously funny Jan Murray back-to-back are spontaneous combustion, the kind of entertainment conflagration the folks write home about.

Juliet doubtless will do more for motherhood than Whistler's celebrated mater. Prettier than ever, in whistle-bait shape, she is giving the performance of a lifetime. Although her entire act is a knockout certainly the mesmerizing ballet to Ravel's "Bolero" is the high point, one of the most stunning dance productions ever seen here and an enormous credit also to her five marvelous dancers and to Tony Charmoli, who directed and staged it.

Miss Prowse's opening song and dance medley keyed by "Love Is A Good Foundation," in which she features the sweet singing Reflections trio and her dancers, is sheer delight as are the comedy sketches with her handsome, gifted husband John McCook. As Adam & Eve, a caveman and his wife, and other characters the two are charming and convulsing.

Award winning comedian Jan Murray is at his funniest with an act that keeps the crowd in stitches.
