

FLOOR FIGHTS MAR MIZRACHI WORLD CONVENTION

MIZRACHI JERUSALEM (WNS) -- The second day of the 22nd World Conference of the Mizrachi - Hapoel Hamizrachi proceeded quietly after a stormy opening session punctuated by bitter floor fights and an ideological debate.

The 500 delegates, after a factional dispute, finally agreed to apportion membership in the presidium on the basis of nationality. Israel was given 40 per cent of the seats, America 30 per cent and all others 30 per cent. The debate reflected sharp differences within the Religious Zionist Movement. Rabbi Samuel Sperber, a veteran Mizrachi ideologue called on the National Religious Party to "set a limit" on its continued participation in Israel's coalition government, saving the Movement must fight for a Torah State instead of a state compromise. Moshe Unna, a spokesman for what in the contest of Orthodoxy is the "left-wing", urged that the inseparable identity of Jewish religion and Jewish nationality be used to guard the Jewish character of Israel rather than in the conquest and subjugation of other peoples. And Premier Golda Meir addressed herself to the current dissension within the Orthodox community here and abroad when she urged Jews and Israelis to live together in "Ahavat Israel" (Love of Israel) and to be tolerant of one another. Rabbi Goren, who shared the dias with the premier at the opening session, proposed the creation of a world halachic council in Jerusalem to decide difficult problems. SUPPORT YOUR LAS VEGAS ISRAELITE NOW IN ITS 9TH YEAR

ISRAEL DOWNS 6 SYRIAN MIGS

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Israeli Army Chief of Staff, Gen. David Elazar, described as the most massive and intense in recent months retaliatory attacks in which Israel claimed its jets shot down six Syrian MIG-21s and inflicted heavy damage on Syrian Army camps, radar stations and terrorist strongholds inside Syria.

He said if the Syrians seal their borders to terrorist incursions against Israel, Israel will observe the cease-fire, but will retaliate any time a civilian settlement is hit.

Meantime, volunteers from neighboring settlements flocked to Merom Hagolan and Nahal Snir in the Golan Heights to help repair the damage caused by Syrian shelling. Two Israeli soldiers were reported slightly wounded during the fighting. All Israeli planes returned safely.

POPE JOHN WANTED ISRAELI RECOGNITION

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Pope JOHN XXIII's plan to have the Vatican extend formal diplomatic recognition to Israel was cut short by his death, according to the January 5 issue of the National Catholic Reporter, a lay - edited periodical.

Rabbi Marc Tanenbaum, director of Interreligious affairs of the American Jewish Committee, told the Reporter Pope John wanted diplomatic recognition to coincide with the publication of the Second Vatican Council's Declaration on the Relationship of the Church on non-Christian Religions.

Rabbi Tanenbaum said the Declaration marked a break with past church teachings on Jews and that Pope John saw diplomatic recognition of Israel as a dramatic expression of that break.

The Reporter said that Pope Paul also favors recognition, but has been more cautious than Pope John.
