Al Bramlet, Secretary-Treasurer of Local 226, Culinary Workers Union, Las Vegas, will be honored at a testimonial dinner sponsored by the National Board of Trustees of the City of Hope on Saturday, February 25.

The Bramlet testimonial will be held in the Sahara Hotel's Space Center, in conjunction with the 60th Anniversary of the free, nonsectarian medical and research center, according to Barron Hilton, President of the Hilton Hotel Corp., National Chairman for the City of Hope 60th Anniversary Committee, and a co-chairman for the Bramlet dinner.

Honorary Chairman for the testimonial honoring Bramlet is Nevada Governor Mike O'Callaghan, who has proclaimed February 25 as City of Hope Day throughout the state. Bramlet will be feted in recognition of his longtime support of the city of Hope and his dedication to its philosophy of humanitarianism and concern for the dignity of all men.

The event will mark the first time a Las Vegas figure has been selected as a recipient of the City of Hope National Board of Trustees Award.

Del Webb Hotels International president, Edward H. Nigro is chairman for the dinner; E. Parry Thomas, board chairman of the Valley Bank of Nevada, is treasurer. Co-chairmen, in addition to Hilton, include: Phil Arce, Al Benedict, Buck Blaine, Sam Boyd, Burton M. Cohen, Esq., Tom Callahan, Richard Danner, Sam Diamond, Mel Exber, Deil Gustafson, James Hill, Kell Houssels, Jr., Joe Ingersoll, D.D.S., Major Riddle, Allan D. Sachs, Richard Schofield, Edward Torres and William Weinberger.

Local coordinator for the City of Hope is

Mrs. Regina Cassady.

Proceeds from the dinner will help establish a Las Vegas Research Facility at the City of Hope, as part of its $18 million capital expansion program to provide new buildings, equipment, staff and personnel to further intensify its battle against catastrophic diseases.

The City of Hope is a Pilot Medical Center conducting programs in patient care, research and education, dealing with cancer and leukemia, maladies of the heart, blood and chest, and certain hereditary and metabolic disorders, such as diabetes.
