Kay Wallerstein sold Tinch Furniture. Will she be remaining in Las Vegas or will she make the move to Los Angeles where her children and grandchildren reside?? Whatever you do, Kay, Good Luck.

Happy grandmothers looking forward to their Bar Mitzvah of their grandsons, Alice Querze (not for long as Alice will be wed to Dr. Goldberg, March 3rd), Ann Frank and Sylvia Siortta. Much nachis always.

Aida Ellenson and Harry Blumberg already had the pleasure of attending to their grandson's Bar Mitzvah. Belated best wishes to both of you.

Speaking of Bar Mitzvahs, Mort and Roz Gahane will be shepping nachis when they hear their son read from the Haftorah in the very near future. I remember when their son was born. So you see, time marches on and may all of us march right along with Father Time. Mazel Tov.

Speaking of Bar Mitzvahs, Jerry and Rita Vale will be having one for their son, Jerry is an entertainer par excellence and he and his family are now residents of Fabulous Las Vegas.

Good news, Toni Braverman, who has been incapacitated for some time due to wrist and elbow surgery, so much so, that Irv had his wonderful sister, Mary Kagan, from Chicago, come to Las Vegas to kind of help Toni get dressed, etc. Along with Mary, some of the gals also helped with the shopping, etc. (I, for one, regret not knowing this, and unfortunately, no one told me, so I was rather in the dark as I always enjoy sending a get well thought or visiting in the hospital if necessary, I know how much this means to some people.) To show her appreciation for the little niceties extended to Mary, Toni had an intimate luncheon for the handful of women who were so helpful. So that I do not miss a name, I will, in behalf of Toni and Mary, say thanks, thanks, and more thanks for all your considerations.

Sylvia and Jack Pastor have been so very, very busy entertaining Jack's two brothers and their wives from St. Louis, Missouri. Seems Sylvia and Jack always have company, and why not, they are excellent hosts, and enjoy taking their guests about to see our fabulous town.

Jean Kengla who is celebrating her birthday with her family and friends, was very surprised when her daughter and her family flew in from Reno to join the festivities.

Happy birthday to all the guys and gals who are celebrating their natal day this month of February, as well as all those couples who are dancing to the Anniversary Waltz. Happy, happy, always. Good wishes to all.

The wandering Messings (Dave & Jeanne), home from Acapulco. Dave hasn't been feeling too well, so hope the trip did him some good.
