

ENTERTAINMENT TRIP AROUND THE WORLD

DICK MCINNES

DOROTHY LAMOUR was the victim of a freak automobile accident, but is well on her way to the "Road to Recovery". Seems a prankster was tailgating the sarong lady in a shopping center and when she tried to get out of his way, she smacked into a concrete lamp pole. She suffered a broken nose, 125 stitches on the inside of her mouth and multiple bruises and contusions. Dottie, ever the trouper, says it won't get her down and during her recuperative period has started to work on her memoirs with yours truly. Our book should be out in the fall, and since Dottie was one of the biggest stars of the forties (her pictures saved Paramount from bankruptcy once), I guarantee that it will be very interesting.

It's time for all of the best and worst lists to be announced again. RAYMOND OF LONDON, a hairdresser who was brought over from London by Elizabeth Arden some fifteen years ago, and who now has his own highly successful shop in the Hills of Beverly, has named the 10 Best Coiffured Women and the 10 Worst. The 10 Best were chosen because they always look neat and tidy, smart, the complete woman, says Raymond. The 10 Worst were chosen for obvious reasons. JULIE ANDREWS, POLLY BERGEN, DIAHANN CARROLL, CHER, PRINCESS GRACE, PAT NIXON, NANCY REAGAN, MRS. CHARLES REYSON, BARBARA RUSH and CLORIS LEACHMAN. Always the diplomat, Raymond did not put any of his own clients on the list because "all women who come to him look great", and if they belonged in the 10 Worst, they wouldn't after the Raymond treatment. He offers "as a public service, one year's free service" to the following ladies: QUEEN ELIZABETH, PRINCESS MARGARET, PRINCESS ANNE, TOTIE FIELDS, ROSEMARIE, RONA BARRETT, SHELLY WINTERS, LIZA MINELLI, ANN-MARGRET and CHARO. Did you hear that, ladies, ONE YEAR'S FREE SERVICE.

"Don't bother Me, I Can't Cope" had to cope with their 150th performance last month and I must say, it was fantastic coping. The show was every bit as fresh as it was when it opened at the Mark Taper last year. Their new surroundings at the Huntington Hartford only enhance the show.

PAULA KELLY (if it's humanly possible) is even better and ALAN WEEKS, WINSTON DEWITT HEMSLEY, GEORGE TURNER, AMANDA AMBROSE, JACQUELYN DUBOIS, MARGUERITE DELAIN, JERRY GRIMES, HANNAH DEAN, JULIET JONES, BILLY KING, BOBBY KING, BRAD MANUEL, CORLISS TAYLOR and KARRON BROWN, whether in ensemble work or in their special spots all shine so brightly that the whole Hartford Stage sort of glows. AVERY SOMMERS replaced EMILY YANCY and she scored well. A personal favorite of mine, MYRNA WHITE was out sick that night and she was missed. Very good news for "Cope" fans, it has been extended again to April 1. This is the show that opened for a limited six-week run last August. Some limit, huh?

PETER BORSARI, very popular Hollywood photographer, wed gorgeous MONIKA PAYNE on Valentine's Day and threw a little bash last Sunday to celebrate. It was some party! Among those toasting the happy couple were MARTY and FRENCHIE ALLEN, (Marty told me that he wants to work out a ROGERS/ASTAIRE routine with MAMA CASS ELLIOTT to be included in their successful Flamingo appearance), KEVIN JAMES, JOHN and PATTY DUKE ASTIN (Patty is due on May 13 and says it will be a boy and I said a girl, so keep tuned, folks), HARRY GUARDINO, EVERETT HAYES, SANDY BARON, and most of the Hollywood press corps. To the newlyweds, a long and happy life together.

TRIPPING AROUND... JAY NORTH left for Chicago to do "Butterflies Are Free" with JOAN BENNETT... DELLA REESE and SANDY BARON, in spite of a small house in Pasadena Civic, gave a helluva show. Something not too many performers can do... choreographer ED KERRIGAN has been dubbed "BUSY" Kerrigan after choreographing "Dean Martin", "The Gold Diggers" and "Jonathan Winters" shows this year.
