PASSOVER -
1973

BY MRS. CHARLOTTE
JACOBSON
CHAIRMAN, WORLD
ZIONIST ORG. AMER.
SECTION

Passover, 1973, takes on an added significance this year as it coincides with the 25th anniversary of the celebration of the establishment of the State of Israel. As we happily commemorate the ancient Biblical Exodus from Egypt, we rejoice that a new and miraculous Exodus has transpired in the past quarter century, the emigration to a national Homeland in Israel of a million and a half Jews, largely from countries of dire oppression.

Despite tremendous obstacles placed in

PASSOVER
MESSAGE

BY PAUL ZUCKERMAN
GENERAL CHAIRMAN,
U.J.A.

Every year we gather with family and friends for the Passover Holiday to relive the spirit and promise of the Exodus of the children of Israel from Egypt. We cannot fail to be moved as we reflect upon the dream nurtured by the cry of "Let my people go!"

It was a dream of life... a dream of new hope. A dream that continues 25 years after the establishment of the Promised Land. A dream already fulfilled for more than one and a half million men, women and children.

But this Passover, there are still fellow

Monorailroading LOCAL EDITORIAL

An editorial in the Las Vegas Sun, hedging its stand on the proposed monorail, was cause for Sun columnist Paul Price to vent another diatribe of manipulated poison on an unsuspecting public.

Price "dissented vehemently" with his paper's editorial, which was merely a left-handed concurrence of Sun publisher Hank Greenspun's rap at the transportation system to serve tourists from McCarran Airport to major casinos.

Previously, we have pointed out, in detail, the alliance that exists between the Sun and those who are spending a large sum of money to kill the monorail proposal. Our sole quest in this controversial issue, is to expose the cold, calculated wielding of a daily newspaper to sway public opinion.

Whether there is an ulterior motive for profit, as has happened before at the Sun, or merely a campaign in the cause of favored friends, the readers should evaluate the faith and credibility of this newspaper in the light of its three-pronged attack on a proposed public project. Greenspun said he does not like to see a

HOW TO CONDUCT SEDER, PG. 8

YOUNG MEMBER OF A JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER IS EXPLAINING THE SYMBOLIC MEANING OF THE VARIOUS FOODS ON THE PASSOVER SEDER PLATE.

NO OCCUPIED LAND FOR JEWS

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- The Cabinet has decided against permitting Israeli firms or individuals to buy land in the administered territories.

Defense Minister Moshe Dayan, Justice Minister Yaacov Shimshon Shapiro and Religious Affairs Minister Zerach Warhaftig reportedly backed down and withdrew their proposals to legalize such transactions at the urging of Premier Golda Meir. She had said categorically she would not support proposals to change the existing situation.

The Cabinet's decision was seen as a blow to Dayan. His office issued a brief statement saying he still believed his position was the right one.

Passover Marvel

(The following information was gathered from the Columbia Encyclopedia, The Story of Pesach published by a commercial matzoth company, and Tolstoi.)

How much can be added to a story that has been commemorated and told in every Jewish family during the annual Seder? True, each year the ceremonial portion of the traditional party dwindles, while the menu for the feast keeps expanding in proportion to the new products that hit the market, labeled Kosher for Passover. The soup-to-nuts Seder now includes canned soups, frozen meats, all flavors of soda pop, many kinds of candy and after-dinner mints - all legitimately in keeping with Passover dietary laws, and stylish.

But the story persists, nevertheless. It had its inception long before Moses, when Jacob's son Joseph, was sold into slavery by his brothers, Joe, with his Jewish "kup" interpreted a dream of the king Pharaoh which saved Egypt from starvation. All Joe did was store up grain during the years of plenty for food during the years of starvation.

Generations later, another Pharaoh, panicked by interpretation of a nightmare, ordered all Jewish male babies cast into the Nile. That's when Moses was set adrift in a waterproof basket and was rescued by the Pharaoh's
