

ISRAEL TO RETURN TERRITORY

JERUSALEM (WNS) Finance Minister Pinhas Sapir said Israel must make clear that its presence in the administered territories is only temporary and that under a peace agreement with its neighbors it intends to return much of the territories and their populations, but that for security reasons there can never be a return to the pre-June 1967 borders.

Sapir, one of the most powerful leaders of the ruling Labor Party, said that security must be the sole criteria determining Israel's future borders, and denounced advocates of annexation on historical, religious or emotional grounds. He was referring to claims by Orthodox and extreme nationalist factions that Israel must keep all the territories that were Jewish in Biblical times.

He warned that 4 million Arabs within Israel's borders would be "dynamite which would blow up the State."

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Foreign Minister Abba Eban has expressed to the French ambassador here Israel's concern over the reported transfer to Egypt of Mirage Jet fighters sold by France to Libya.

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- The queen Elizabeth 2, the world's second largest passenger liner, received a tumultuous welcome in Ashdod, Israel's newest deep water port, with 620 passengers on an Israel Passover cruise.
