JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER NEWS

BY STEVE HERMAN

The center recently sponsored a trip to Zion National Park in Utah. The trip was for junior high students. A trip for senior high students was planned for the weekend of the 28th of April.

The junior high group left the center at 2:00 p.m. on the afternoon of the 21st of April. They arrived at Zion at about seven that evening.

A few of the boys had trouble getting asleep that night since the temperature had dropped into the lower 30's. The next day they did some strenuous hiking and mountain climbing.

The first feat of the day was climbing a mountain called Angels Landing. This mountain rises more than a mile high, some 5,785 feet. The climb turned out to be worthwhile, as from atop they were rewarded with a spectacular view of the surrounding area.

The boys spent the rest of the day touring Zion.

The group returned to Las Vegas on Sunday afternoon.

The supervisor for the trip was Bob Healy, an experienced camper and hiker. Bob, who knows a lot about the National Park gave the boys some background the trip more enjoying and educational.
