evada State Library arson City ev. 89701

JACK TELL'S NEWSPAPER

RENO ISRAELITE

"For Those Who Deserve The Best"

The Only English-Jewish Newspaper in Nevada Published Weekly in Las Vegas

VEGAS ISRAELITE

NOW BEING READ WEEKLY BY AN ADDITIONAL 2,000 JEWISH LEADERS ALL OVER THE WORLD, P.O. BOX 14096 LAS VEGAS, NEV. 89114

FRIDAY, MAY 11, 1973

876-1255

-- Premier Golda Meir deeper malaise. said the Israeli governdent Nixon, who insists son, that "quiet diplomacy" A emigration.

She said she was happy over the large number of American Congressman who support the Senate and House amendments to the East - West Trade Act. She also noted that Nixon spoke on behalf of Soviet Jewry during his summit meeting in Moscow last May and is continuing his efforts on their behalf.

Mrs. Meir said the relaxation of the Soviet education tax was brought, about mainly through Nixon's efforts, but observed the tax was

YAHRZEITS TONIGHT AT BETH SHOLOM

FRIDAY, MAY 11, 1973 David Goodman Max Lash Abe Stein Joseph Blumenthal David Lecker Sol Cooper Dr. Albert Kantor Rubin Kirsch

Jennie Bernstein Fannie Goldstein Jessie Foosaner Libby Heller Bertha Pearl Kozloff Ella Silverman Sadie Sugarman Clara Sobel Clara Star Sara Spivak Edith Krasnow

JERUSALEM (WNS) only symptomatic of a

The Cabinet is also ment could not and united in its belief that should not intervene in all efforts aimed at the internal dispute in helping Soviet Jewry the United States over should be encouraged Jackson amend- and that Israel must not ment, but she had lavish intervene in the dispute praise for both Presi- between Nixon and Jack-

A top source said the is the best approach to relaxation of the educathe Soviet Union over tion tax has been the Jewish emigration, and result of both Nixon's Sen. Henry M. Jackson, efforts and the Russians the Washington Demo- knowledge he had a crat, whose measure strong like - minded would deny U. S. trade Congress behind him on concessions to Russia this issue. He said there as long as it restricted was not necessarily a contradiction between Nixon and Jackson, nor necessarily a clash between them, since they both desired the same ends for Russian Jews.

He indicated that Israel was quietly hoping for some sort of compromise between them.

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- On the eve of Dr. Henry Kissinger's departure for a four-day visit with Soviet leaders in Moscow, Jewish community leaders met with the President's national security affairs advisor to discuss the Soviet Jewry issue. At the same time, Congressmen impressed upon Kissinger the need for him to take up this issue during his visit. Max Fisher, past president of the Council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Funds, Richard Maass, National Conference on Soviet Jewry chairman, and Jacob Stein, chairman of the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations, said after the 40-minute meeting with Kissinger that they were encouraged by his response and "by his assurance that the channel of communication between the White House and the Jewish community on this issue will remain open."

In a powerful renewal of Congressional pressure for White House insistence on free emigration for Soviet citizens, Sen. Henry M. Jackson (D. Wash.) and Representatives Wilbur Mills (D. Ark.) and Charles Vanik (D. Ohio) assured the NCSJ that there was no change in their feelings about legislation they have introduced to bring about relief for prospective emigrants. In a last minute appeal to Dr. Kissinger, Republican Senate Leader Hugh Scott pointed out that "all that could be done has not been done either" by the Nixon Administration or the Soviet leader-

(Continued on Page 3)

MRS. MAX N. MATZKIN, NEWLY ELECTED PRESIDENT OF HADASSAH, PRESENTS A LITHOGRAPH BY THE NOTED AMERICAN PAINTER, BEN SHAHN, TO PRESIDENT ZALMAN SHAZAR OF ISRAEL IN AN INFORMAL CEREMONY AT THE PRESIDENT'S HOME. THE PICTURE DEPICTS A BIRD OF PEACE SINGING PSALM 133, A SONG OF DAVID.

One Man Plus The Truth Constitutes A Majority'

BY JACK TELL

Happy Us

DON JAY MIKE ----1947----

If you are looking for a rip and tear column today, forget it.

Each year, around May 10th, we get soft and mushy. Old man nostalgia sets in and it's the time for reminiscing. Our thoughts wander back to another May 10, the one in 1936. It was a Sunday, Mother's Day, and it marked the be-ginning of history in the life of the Jack Tell family.

Relatives, friends, business associates, some 400, assembled to witness the nuptials of Jack and Bea. It was a happy gathering of people from all walks of life. We recall introducing a judge to a man he had sentenced to jail many years previously, and how proud we noted fellow law students sitting in awe, listening to noted attorneys and prosecutors reflect on past cases.

The relatives from each of the very large families being united, gathered in knots to brag about the good catch the others were get-Press agents and entertainers flocked around newspapermen and hard boys and loose women forgot their professions in honor of the Bea was radiant and we were bursting with pride. Who knew at the time, what the future would hold in store for us?

Here it is, 37 years later, through trials and (Continued on page 4)