

Only in Vegas

By
Helene Stadler

We are very grateful to announce that this is the 50th wedded year of our darling parents, Sara and Abe Saltzman. In their honor we are hosting a reception after the Friday night service on May 11, 1973 at Temple Beth Shalom, 1600 E. Oakey Blvd. Our cousin, Rabbi Richard G. Hirsch will be here to conduct this service which will begin at 8:30 p.m.

As Las Vegas has been our home for the past 28 years, we would be honored and most humble to have all our friends who have been a part of those years, share this momentous occasion.

Mal and Herb Rowe, Mike, Jeanne, Maridee, Ken, Randi, Esty and Her' Rousso, Stacey, Jeff, Jayne and Art Marshall, Todd, Cari.

"The Turning Points" will examine the future of cable television Wed. May 16, at 9:30 p.m. and Mon. May 21 at 7:30 p.m. on Channel 10.

Howard "Hickey" Kamm, Casino Executive of the Frontier hotel, is playing a good game of golf and is a wonderful man and a credit to our Jewish community.

Congressman David Towell joined a number of other Representatives this week in introducing a bill that would insure the continuation of airline youth fares.

KLXV, Channel 10, was a recipient of the Spotlight Award of the State Convention of the PTA held in Tonopah.

Congressman David Towell is co-sponsoring legislation aimed at intensifying the fight against diabetes.

Spending a week at camp from June 23 to July 1 is one of the special job openings for volunteer counselors, 18 years of age or older. The camp for retarded children also needs a registered nurse to volunteer her services for the same week. Contact VAC at 319 S. Third or phone 382-5260 between 10 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.

After 23 years and one week, Sonny Barnett of the Desert Inn Hotel is hanging it up. That is to say, he is retiring from the job he has held at the casino in the dice pit for all those years. He will be missed.

Want a treat?? Take yourself, wife, family or best girlfriend to a delightful, charming, elegant spot for dining. The Circus Circus Bon Vivant Room. Be greeted by long-time resident James Blake, who will make you feel at home and give you kingly attention. Prices are right.

The Pentagon has requested $7.8 million worth of military construction for Nevada in the upcoming fiscal year. Senator Howard Cannon has announced.

All the luck in the world to Bill Bray, new publicity director for King's Castle at North Lake Tahoe, which opens May 25.

Registration is under way for the largest and most diversified summer school in the history of the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

Registration by mail will be accepted from those who cannot come to the Summer Session Office in Room 109 of Frazier Hall.

KIDNEY FLING AT CAESARS MAY 11.

The Kidney Foundation of Nevada is sponsoring their Second Annual Super-Spring Fling at Caesar's Palace on Fri. May 11th. The event, which is under the chairmanship of Mrs. Ash Resnick, will be held in the colosseum of the hotel. Proceeds from the ticket sales will go to the Clark County Schools to sponsor their Early Detection and Prevention Program and also for the express benefit of the kidney patients in Nevada.

Eydie Gorme and Steve Lawrence will lead off the star-studded show. The Nat Brandwynne Orchestra will provide the music following the theme of the evening by playing all the tunes made famous by the big bands of yesterday.

Tickets are $15, $25, and $50, and can be purchased by calling the Kidney Foundation of Nevada at 735-6413, or Marilyn Resnick at 735-1608.
