were told not to leave. The day's only mishap occurred when a security helicopter made a forced landing near the Augusta Victoria Hospital on Mt. Scopus, injuring nine crew members, none seriously.

President Zalman Shazar, Premier Golda Meir, and former Premier David Ben-Gurion watched the parade from the official reviewing stand facing Police Headquarters in the Sheikh Jarrah quarter of East Jerusalem.

Observers noted the preponderance of American-made weaponry both in the air and on the ground. There were supersonic Phantom jets, American Skyhawk attack planes and huge Stratocruiser transports, as well as French Mirages, American and French combat helicopters and an Israeli-made jet trainer adapted from the French Fouga Magister design.

On the ground, there were giant Patton (American) and Centurian (British) tanks, many of them rebuilt and re-engined by Israeli technicians to improve their speed and fire power, Soviet-made T-55 and T-54 tanks captured during the Six-Day War, and 240 mm, Russian-made Katyusha rocket launchers, both totally rebuilt and virtually new.

About 2000 infantrymen marched along with paratroopers and combat engineers in the parade which cost Israel IL 20 million and was three months in preparation.

HIDING SS BUM DISCOVERED

BONN (WNS) -- Himmler's former legal advisor, SS-Oberfuehrer Horst Bender, 68, who now practices law in Stuttgart, has been charged with complicity in the murder of an undetermined number of Jews, it was reported here.

His real identity was recently discovered by the Nazi War Crimes Center in Ludwigsburg. According to SS files, Bender was a senior SS judge in 1942 when he proposed in writing to Himmler that the murder of Jews for political reason not be a punishable offense.

Himmler accepted the proposal.
