MULLEN FOR CITY JUDGE

MOON

"Distinguished Service Matters."

Judge "Moon" Mullen's supporters chose that motto for his campaign. It's true. And in Judge Mullen's case, the motto fits.

Judge Mullen came here in 1953, a Korean War combat veteran. Then 23 years old, he joined the Las Vegas Police force and later served as a deputy Sheriff. He devoted his off-duty time to youth work and study.

In 1961, Judge Mullen entered youth work full time, as a probation officer. In 1963, he became Judge David Zenoff's right arm as Chief Probation Officer and Director of Court Services. In 1969, he was elected Municipal Judge.

Through the years, Judge Mullen's civic work

GRIPENTROG FOR CITY ATTY.

A Nevada Supreme Court decision against the City of North Las Vegas on the closure of an adult bookstore was a result "of the failure of Carl Lovell to even file a brief in the case," Las Vegas City Attorney Earl Gripentrog charged.

The Supreme Court ruled against North Las Vegas saying that Lovell's appeal was "without merit". Gripentrog said Lovell's failure to file a Brief with the high Court "amounts to misfeasance in office in and all probability will cost the taxpayers of North Las Vegas hundreds of thousands of dollars."

"After Lovell did not file a Brief in a case he appealed, the Supreme Court had no choice but to rule unanimously against the people of North Las Vegas", Gripentrog said. "The result is that the book store in question can now be reopened. Further, an attorney representing the book store has indicated that he will seek damages against the City of North Las Vegas."

Gripentrog said Lovell's action was "legally indefensible and an affront to the people of North Las Vegas." Lovell is guilty of "political hypocrisy," Gripentrog said, noting that Lovell continued, primarily in areas concerning youth, but also on behalf of the handicapped and afflicted. Still, although that work brought recognition to him from community leaders and civic groups, "Moon" Mullen's most significant achievement, the most important recognition, came from the citizens of Las Vegas themselves when they elected him the first black judge in Nevada's history.

His election indicated that a majority of Las Vegas were ready to judge a man's merits without reference to his race or creed. And nothing will go farther toward proving this, than Mullen's re-election by an overwhelming majority.

With his record of professional and civic achievement, Judge Mullen deserves re-election, and every person who values his own right to be treated fairly, not withstanding the circumstances of his birth, should and indeed must help to assure that this good and dedicated man is returned to office.

Distinguished Service Matters.

"campaigned for City Attorney telling the people of his opposition to pornography while failing to even file a Brief before the Supreme Court on a case involving the closure of an 'adult' book store."

The Supreme Court action upheld the District Court decision of Judge Leonard Gang. In ruling against the City of North Las Vegas, the Court not only allowed the store to reopen, but required the City to restock the seized material on the shelves, leaving the store in the same condition it was in before the closure.

A lawsuit naming Lovell and North Las Vegas has been filed by Attorney Henry Gordon, suing North Las Vegas for $200,000.

Earl Gripentrog has filed 65 law suits with complaints and warrants against smut stores, but proceeded lawfully and legally. Consequently, Las Vegas has no lawsuits against it for improper seizure.

AL LEVY HAS 135,000 GOOD REASONS WHY HE WANTS TO BE YOUR CITY COMMISSIONER.

HERE ARE JUST FIVE OF THEM.

Your problems are Al Levy's problems because he shares your hopes and aspirations. Al Levy is a dedicated family man who for more than 20 years has seen Las Vegas grow from a small town to a population of 135,000. He wants what all people want—a good and decent city for you and your children and for him and his children. He has offered positive proposals to deal with the City's problems—crime and drugs, consolidation, pornography, pollution and recreation. Al Levy has made positive proposals to deal effectively with conflict of interest, and he was the first city commission candidate in history to make public a full disclosure of his personal finances. People—all of us—are Al Levy's concern. Al Levy. You'll like him... as a city commissioner... as a man.
