Wedding bells will be chiming for Susan Frey and Irwin Molasky. Irwin really hit the jackpot with his show "The Waltons" on TV as that show took many awards. Good luck.

The Kravit's household is a joyous one. Their son Bob has graduated from medical school and will start interning by the time you read this. Also, their son Marty was accepted in law school. Like a Jewish mother, Shirley can now say "I have a son a doctor and pretty soon a lawyer. Of course, Label, the father can also boast of this nachis."

Condolences to the family of Jerry Fox on the loss of his son Brian, age 7. He is survived by his parents, a brother Stuart, Sister Francine, paternal grandfather, Abe Fox, and paternal

JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER NEWS

BY STEVE HERMAN

The Jewish Community Center is now in the process of forming "Camp Masada", a three day a week camp for 7, 8, and 9th graders. The center already has two camps, Kinder Kamp and Camp Shalom, but these camps are only for students up to 6th grade. Camp Masada will be a whole new program which will not follow the same format as Camp Shalom. Some of the new ideas planned for Camp Masada will be visits to lawyers offices, doctor offices, etc. There are also plans to attend some court cases.

We will only be able to take in 8 to 10 students. The camp is co-ed. For more information call the center at 382-8621.

The Junior High Carnival and Sports Night was held on May 26 from 7 to 10 P.M.

Those who attended were served refreshments and everybody had lots of fun.

AZA NEWS BEAT

BY MIKE SHARP

Last Saturday nite Las Vegas AZA went to a swim party at the Steinberg's home.

We played volley ball; then we went inside for some delicious refreshments; then some of us went to the pool, and just about everyone got thrown in.

Sunday we went on a hayride. It was great fun. Then at night we went to a drive-in movie and saw Summer of '42, and Class of '44, both excellent movies.

Our many thanks to Mrs. Steinberg for such a wonderful party.

We have a new adviser now, Mr. Gary Schnitzer, Gary and his lovely wife Linda, attend all of our events. Sorry, Mr. Mike Cherry left us. We'll miss you.

We have our meetings at the Temple every 1st and 3rd Wednesdays of the month. So, why don't you come?
